SENIORS

Alas! the time approaches when we must bid adieu,
To all those things we've held so dear, and start our life anew;
All those friendships we have made, we'll hold for many a year,
But time must soon eradicate the memories, we fear;
'Twere truly sweet and wonderful if we could carry all,
Our friendships and our mem'ries to the final curtain call;
But life holds not in store for us the things we want, it seems;
So let us be content with those we conjure in our dreams.
To the faculty we say goodbye, true friends we must confess,
Whose patience, friendship, knowledge, all have helped us to success:
Our love shall linger long for them, our thoughts, shall oft return,
To the happy hours spent in class, to the subjects hard to learn;
To our fellow-students au revoir! we'll meet again 'ere long,
So let us part with smile on lips, and in our heart a song;
With heads held high and step erect, we'll march, in knowledge greater,
Out in the world to cherish always, dear old alma mater.

JUNE McGRATH.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS

FOR us it is but a step now until we leave the stately portals of our dear old Alma Mater. It seemed but a few short months ago that we were but mere Freshmen wandering very awkwardly and self-consciously through the halls, feeling very much trodden under foot by our superiors, the upper classmen. However, all things must come to an end and now we look back at our years in school with a feeling of regret that they must pass and yet proud that we passed through them so successfully.

With the advent of our Freshman reception, which consisted of a play in the auditorium and a dance in the gym, including refreshments given by the Juniors, our social season opened, to be followed next by our Freshman Dance in the Spring. At this dance the insignificant Freshmen distinguished themselves as social entertainers and decorators and this reputation continued throughout our following social events. Our next affair was a colorful fall hop in the gym followed by our Junior Promenade at the Maplewood Country Club. This dance was our first formal affair given outside of the school and everyone was very much thrilled at the sophisticated atmosphere created. This completed our activities for the Junior year but little did we know what was ahead.

How anyone survived the bustling activity of our final months as Seniors, no one will ever know. The Senior B. Tea, the Circus, Senior Prom, Senior Assembly Baccalaureate Sermon, all followed one another in quick succession and yet in spite of it all we found time to take care of the work required of us by our instructors.

How some of us managed to graduate will never be understood and yet here we are on the verge of one of the proudest yet saddest moments ever experienced in Normal School. With education at one of its lowest ebbs in history, with our outlook as black as night, not one of us will leave Commencement with any but a feeling of hope and conviction that some day we will be able to do our part in that field of work which needs new and young blood to keep it alive. Our work in school finished, the job is hardly started. Many will be our disappointments and setbacks, but we will overcome these as we have all others, for the spirit inspired by our Alma Mater can never die.

RICHARD TAYLOR,

President of Class of '34.

ABBY F. ACKERMAN

618 MADISON STREET

HACKETTSTOWN, N. J.

Abby is a very jolly girl and is respected and esteemed by all her companions. Her nature and power to jest at all times endeared her to us and made for her many friends at school. It's no use, you can't resist Abby.

109 HILLSIDE AVENUE

NEWARK, N. J.

Virginia is a person who never loses her temper. She has a sunny disposition and a love of humor. Always calm and placid, she is an excellent friend.

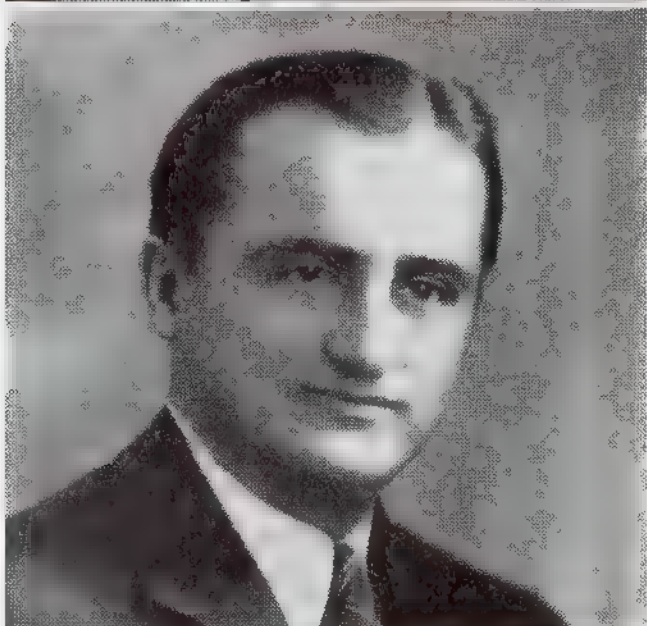

DORIS P. ADRIAN

FAIRFIELD ROAD

FAIRFIELD, N. J.

Doris is that charming farmerette from Fairfield. She has been a genuine asset to every activity with which she has been in contact. Doris is an active member of the Norms Theatre Guild, where she was Recording Secretary for '33 and was always valuable, making outstanding contributions to the club. Doris was also Social Leader for her section for '32. A young leader of no mean accomplishments.

PETER ANDRUS

101 TENTH STREET

PASSAIC, N. J.

Here lies our potential politician and guide. Section leader in his second year and president of A. T. in '34. Admiring nature at night constituted his main hobby. We wonder whether this links up with his membership in the Art Club for two years and the General Activities Club in the third year. Was he enabled to extend his research?

LYDA F. BAYORS

180 ALEXANDER STREET

NEWARK, N. J.

Lyda has won many friends for herself by her earnestness and perseverance. She is clever, studious, fair-minded and industrious. Her smile and her unassuming manner did much to make her friendship desired and her success hoped for by all who know her.

HELEN BEATTY
170 HESHIT TERRACE

IRVINGTON, N. J.

If personality determines a teacher's success, Helen will be successful. Many a class has been saved by her keen sense of humor. Her amiable attitude and her cheerfulness are decided assets.

ANN CONSTANCE BEDNARZ

53 THIRD STREET

PASSAIC, N. J.

Anne's comely exterior reflects the wholesomeness of her nature. Interested in music, for three years she devoted herself to the Music Study and Glee Clubs. Her earnestness added much to discussions in the International Relations Club, but social affairs found her gay and merry. Early in her school career she was elected Social Leader.

ANDREW SUMMERS BELLINGHAM

16 WILLS PLACE

IRVINGTON, N. J.

Who was that venerable geologist and one time excavator, who has darkened our hallway? In fact who was always in the hallways and byways? A. Summers Bellingham. As a vent for his freshman exuberance, "Andy" spent the major portion of his time in the Archery Club. In his second year he was struck with the feeling for fine arts, and thereby graced the portals of the Art Club for one year. Finally a senior, confident of doing more and better things, Mr. Bellingham had to divide his time between the General Activities Club, the Glee Club, A. T., and the S. L. F.

ROMAINE BLACKMAR

303 WOODSIDE AVENUE

NEWARK, N. J.

"As full of spirit as the month of May."

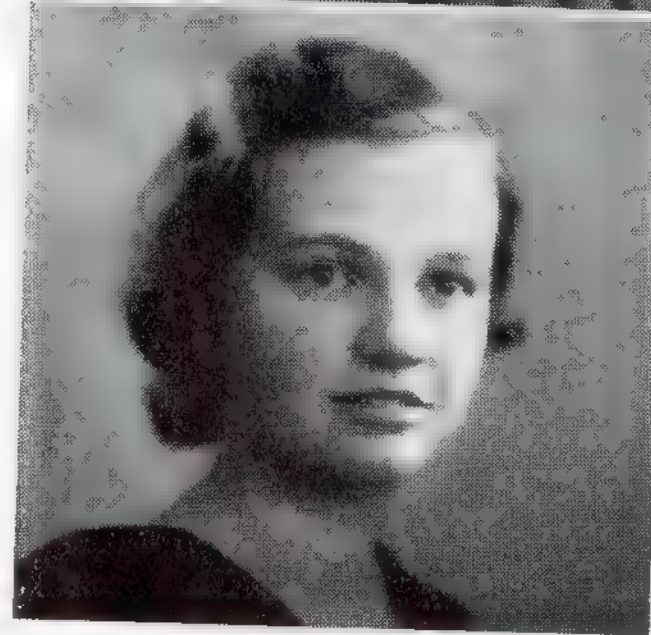

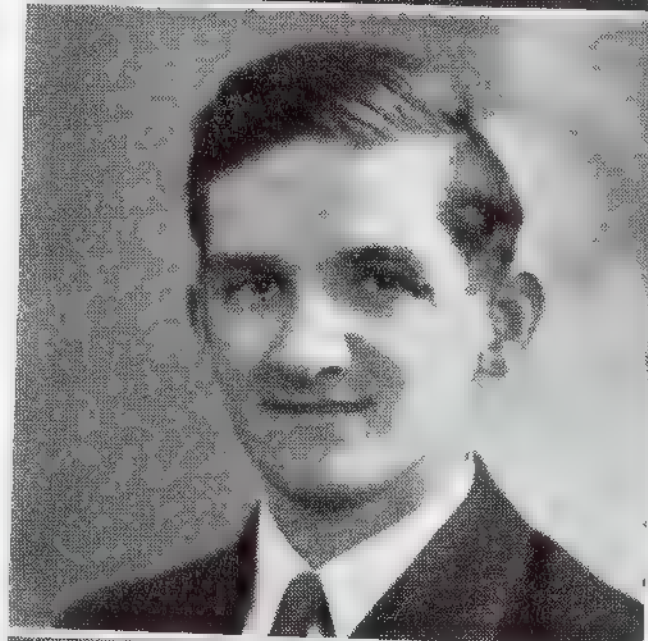

Heralding one of our favorites—we introduce Romaine. Romaine is one of the few who have so whole-heartedly shared with all, her delightful personality. The secret of her popularity lies in her vivaciousness and Romaine can boast of being an excellent dancer. The Studio, Dancing and Dramatic Clubs have been her interests.

ELINORE MULFORD BOOTH

34 GROVE STREET

KEARNY, N. J.

Earnest, not over-loquacious, her contributions have always been worthwhile. Elinore has become imbued with the renowned sense of humor of Sr. A's. Patience, reliability, accuracy are among her outstanding characteristics.

MARAGARET LIELA BAUGH

7 EDGERTON TERRACE

EAST ORANGE, N. J.

Margaret's wit always attracted a listening audience because of its originality. Her optimism and cheery smile brightened many a dull day.

LUCILLE BRICKELL

168 SPRING STREET

ORANGE, N. J.

"For just experience tells, in every soil,

That those who think, must govern the world."

Our dependable friend, Lucille, has the rare ability of thinking things through for herself and once having made a decision, sticking to it. That is why the International Relations Club is proud of her membership. An ardent lover of nature, Lu was an active member of the Science Club in which she held many offices.

DORIS BRINKERHOFF

729 RIDGE STREET

NEWARK, N. J.

"Still water runs deep."

Those who have known Doris have found her to be a real friend—understanding, sympathetic, and tolerant. A deep wisdom and practical judgment will make her a good teacher. Talented along many lines, she has hidden her light to most of us under a bushel of her charm. The Dancing and Handcraft Clubs will miss her. Good luck to you, Doris!

ALVERTA BROTHERHOOD

37 LLEWELLYN AVENUE

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

A good disposition, a quiet way, and a pleasant smile make Alverta of value to our class. She has been active in many things since her freshman year. Besides being in the Kindergarten Club she has been on the Library Council and has been an active member of the Dramatic Club serving on several of its committees.

JANICE IRENE BRYANT

286 NORTH WALNUT STREET

EAST ORANGE, N. J.

One would never guess that Irene was a girl from the country for she is one of our most poised and dignified students. Perhaps we all should have joined the Dancing, Swimming and Dramatic Clubs if the members are all as graceful and cultured as Irene. Her friendliness and sincerity have attracted many friends and as a Section Leader she showed many admirable qualities.

ELIZABETH BUCHMAN

BEDMINSTER, N. J.

"Industry reaps its just reward." Betty has been a leader in many affairs of the Marionette Guild, while her good humor made her well-liked in the Dancing Club. She was an able Section Leader in the Junior year. Here's wishing her luck!

VIVIAN GERTRUDE BUNTING

56 MAPLE PLACE

CLIFTON, N. J.

Vivian is a girl anyone will benefit by knowing. She is one who is earnest, conscientious, sincere, and willing to help lighten a burden or make a task easier.

MARJORIE BURDICK

176 LINDEN AVENUE

GLEN RIDGE, N. J.

Our Marge is the perfect picture of non-chalance and poise; upon closer observation, one finds that she has a very keen wit and a deep sense of humor. Offices as Section Leader, Social Leader, Treasurer of the Music Study Club, and Second Vice-President of the Glee Club have naturally gravitated to her. She is also a member of the Kindergarten Club. We know whatever Marge does she will without doubt meet success, for Marge has that quality and personality which is essential and which is found in people like — well, Lincoln.

DOROTHY BUSCH

808 ADAMS AVENUE

ELIZABETH, N. J.

Overflowing with the joy of living is Dot, an active member of the class. Popularity accompanied her to the polls. She proved efficient as Section Leader, Social Leader, and Treasurer of Nu Lambda Kappa. Membership in the Camera, Music Study, Swimming and International Relations Clubs revealed the diversity of her interests. A three-year membership on the Library Council showed the earnestness which permeated her studies.

EMILY BAKER BYRAM

45 BYRAM AVENUE

DOVER, N. J.

In practically every graduating group there are a few people who, though apparently not very active in school affairs, are in the background ready to give us a helping hand. Just such a person is Emily. Her smile and keen sense of humor plus her understanding and tolerance have made her priceless to all of us. We wish you success, Emily, and feel sure you will find it. Emily's interests have centered in the Swimming Club, Dancing Club, Psychology Club and International Relations Club.

ROSE GERTRUDE BYRNES

328 BOND STREET

ELIZABETH, N. J.

Rose early won for herself an affectionate place in our regard. "Good sport" is almost synonymous with her name. Fun-loving, cheerful, good-natured and ambitious. We know she will succeed in whatever she attempts.

PHYLLIS CALLICHIO

499 JORALEMON STREET

BELLEVILLE, N. J.

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

This has been Phyl's slogan during her three years at Normal. Her jolly personality and willingness to help has made her a friend to all. What would our basketball games be without Phyl? She has been active in the Camera Club.

MARY ELIZABETH CAMPBELL

R. F. D. BOX 152

ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J.

"Truth is beauty." Mary's genial manner is based on sincerity and true dependability—always willing to help, and seeing the humor of a situation, Mary has made many friends. Her activities have varied from membership in the Science and Music Study Clubs to Vice-Presidency of Nu Lambda Kappa.

ROSE CARDINALE

132 STONE STREET

NEWARK, N. J.

A fair maiden whom the Gods have blessed with all the beauty and gentleness of soul; whose everready hand and ear lend themselves to aid friend and foe. Rose has had many interests, being a member of the Norms Theatre Guild, the Music Study Club, the International Relations Club, and the Home Economics Club.

VIRGINIA CARRINGTON

193 WOODSIDE AVENUE

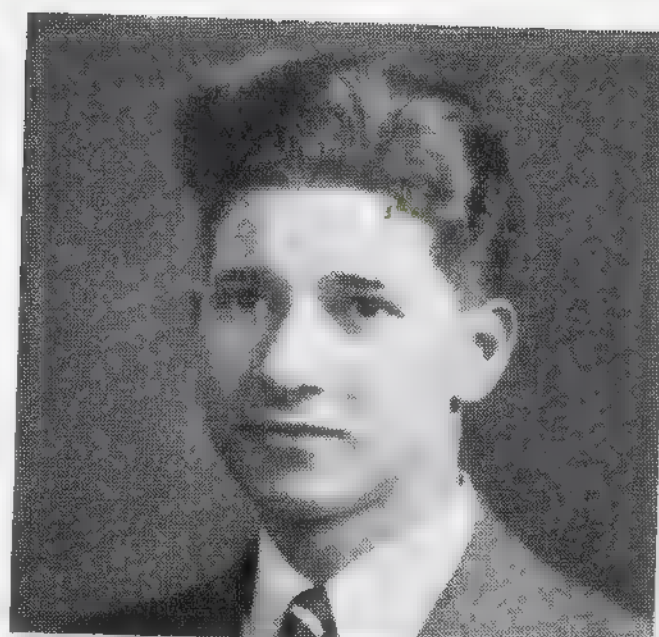

NEWARK, N. J.

Ginny's leadership has made her a vital part of our class life. As both Section and Social Leader she showed such ability as won her the office of Vice-President of the Senior Class. She has been a member of the Glee Club for three years and is now Corresponding Secretary. She is also a member of the Music Study Club and has belonged to the Swimming Club. It's been grand to have had her in our class.

ALBERT J. CICCONE
142 CHESTNUT STREET
NUTLEY, N. J.

The Marx brothers will live forever—at least Jada can double for any one of them. Every one enjoyed the lucid performance of this understudy in the "Spanish Moon." A three-year basketball player, a two-year member of the Camera Club and senior member of the General Activities Club. In keeping with our "initial era," Mr. Ciccone proved a diligent worker for the Soc. Com., St. Cl., and S. L. F.

HELEN COLE
715 WEST FOURTH STREET
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

A sincere friend, an earnest student plus a keen sense of humor equals Helen Cole. The Women's Glee Club enjoyed three years of her faithfulness. She appreciates music and plays the piano. Sports are her fresh air interests. As a member of the Basketball Squad, she showed her ability.

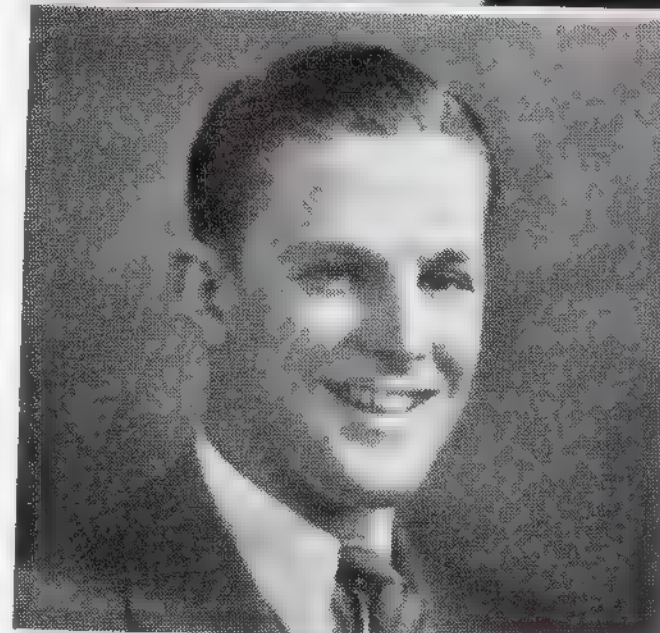

HELEN FRANCES COLLINS
210 ORCHARD STREET
ELIZABETH, N. J.

"Her good humor never failed her and smoothed away many a rough place in her path in all the countless activities with which she was associated." Basketball, Deck Tennis, Swimming, were a few. The Marionette Guild recognized her abilities by making her its Secretary one year, and its Vice-President the next. Helen needs no further recommendation other than her inherent characteristics.

L. RODMAN COLLINS
300 SMITH STREET
MILLVILLE, N. J.

The handsome representative from Cumberland county unfolds a rather checkered story. Athlete, Leader, Cinema enthusiast, Archer and Actor. "Rod" played deck tennis and basketball from the first year on. Interested himself as a freshman in the Camera Club and broke forth in the Varsity Show. Still persisting in Dramatics the second year, he was also chosen the Social Leader for his section. Keeping up the gym work in the third year, "Rod" perfected his skill with the bow as an archer. A. T.

HAZEL COURTER
16 HARRISON STREET
HARRISON, N. J.

Practical, artistic and humorous, Hazel made an outstanding contribution to the life of the school. Her ventures into the "no-woman's land" of the shops proved her to be a resourceful and enterprising person, bound to succeed.

IVAH CRAMMOND
245 HILLSIDE AVENUE
NUTLEY, N. J.

Ivah has been one of the starters of activities about our Sunshine School. The Freshman year she spent as a Glee Club member. But her Junior year, she was one of the group to start the Social Studies Club which has grown to be very successful. These two years Ivah is a member of the group which organized the International Relations Club. There is no question that Ivah is always up and doing things.

JANET E. CRONK
26 ELMWOOD AVENUE
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

The coefficient of correlation between Janet's hands and tongue is 1! She has added much to our class since her arrival from N.J.C. Besides being a good sport she has contributed ideas which have helped to enrich our class. While Janet has been with us, she has participated in many activities, among which are the Norms Theatre Guild, Glee Club, Kindergarten Club, and Music Study Club. She was also in the musical comedy "Spanish Moon."

MAMIE DASCOLL
40 COOK AVENUE
MADISON, N. J.

"There is something in the autumn that is native to my blood."

Mamie is gifted with the fine rhythm of the gypsy. We will remember her also as an active member of the Social Studies Club and the Nu Lambda Kappa.

LAWRENCE DAVIE
753 BELMONT AVENUE
NORTH HALEDON, N. J.

Larry—a square shooter! A good scholar! Usually serious, Larry flashes a spark of humor into discussions once in a while. His many and varied outside experiences add richness to group discussions.

Larry will be remembered for his calm disposition and consideration for others. We hold him in high esteem.

MARION ELIZABETH DIETZ
RIVERSIDE APARTMENT
RED BANK, N. J.

She was a scholar, and a good one at that. With her laughing eyes and her soft, sweet voice, she can not help but be popular. A girl more congenial would be hard to find.

WILLIAM DENBERG

14 LESLIE STREET

NEWARK, N. J.

Ship ahoy! Captain Bill has been navigating the good ship N. S. N. S. The Captain, who has been President of the Student Organization, the highest office to be secured, is relinquishing his post at the helm.

A dynamic personality, a clear thinker, a spark plug to any discussion and a sincere pilot, we know that "Willy," after the profitable three year cruise at Normal School, will steer his ship straight to a worthwhile port.

ISABEL DESMOND

20 CHESTNUT STREET

KEARNY, N. J.

A smile—a kind and sympathetic word—a willingness to offer a helping hand—a real friend—that's Isabel, the charming lass from Kearny. During her stay with us, she spread cheer among the members of the Dancing and Science Clubs. May she always remain as we would like to remember her—quiet, sincere and friendly.

GRACE DeVRIES

80 WESSINGTON AVENUE

GARFIELD, N. J.

You're missing a lot if you don't know Grace. A sense of humor and an interest in serious things make her companionship desirable.

Class, even when you're bored because you haven't studied, is pleasanter when Grace is there. Music is her hobby. She plays both the piano and the organ. She has belonged to the Women's Glee Club, the Music Study Club and the International Relations Club, and was Section Leader in her Freshman B and Senior B terms.

CHARLES DILKS

420 DELSEA DRIVE

CLAYTON, N. J.

If something is good for one year it is good for three, thought Charlie. A three-year member of the Archery Club; a three-year member of the Psychology Club, elected Treasurer in second year; and not one year less in the Radio Club—if you never knew it, Mr. Dilks is a licensed government radio operator. A. T.

EDNA DINGLE

81 FIRST STREET

EAST ORANGE, N. J.

Edna Dingle, our bid for the daintiest girl. Her "joie de vivre" is dancing, in which she is graceful and accomplished. Her smile makes her a social leader, so that a school function would be empty without Ding and that supplementary tall, dark-haired President.

MARGERY DOLAN

8 FRANCES PLACE

MONTCLAIR, N. J.

During her short stay with us, Margery made an ineradicable impression through her exquisite taste, her cheerfulness, and the efficiency with which she attacked any task which came along. These and the other fine qualities in Margery's make-up are bound to bring her success.

CECILIA DOMKOFSKI

52 GRAND STREET

GARFIELD, N. J.

"A friend in need" — and a real friend is Sis. Under her carefree exterior is a helpful character. She was Secretary of the Science Club for three years, which proves something. And for two years she served as Social Leader of her section.

DOROTHY DONESON

123 STATE STREET

PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

Donnie's good nature shines all over her radiant countenance. But that isn't the only brilliant feature about Donnie. Her auburn hair is one of her crowning glories. Ever-obliging, Dot played the piano so that others could dance during lunch hours. Unselfish and sharing, Donnie will give you everything she has. You can depend on her!

ANN SLEVEN DOYLE

19 HOWE AVENUE

MONTCLAIR, N. J.

Ann the spontaneous, the enthusiastic, has for her three years in the Normal School been active in the Glee Club, Library Council, Varsity Basketball, and Kindergarten Club. We have played and worked with Ann. She is an indefatigable worker and a sought after playmate. Her associations with the Music Study, Nu Lambda Kappa, International Relations Organization and Swimming Club have provided many opportunities for us to share her company. Good luck to you always, Ann!

HELEN DRIVER

158 WASHINGTON STREET

MORRISTOWN, N. J.

We cannot enumerate the pleasures "H-ie" has given us since she came here from Glassboro Normal—1932.

Good looking, a very good dancer, lots of fun, with a giggle that is catching. Our Helen has been very busy for the short time she has been here. The Dance Club, The Glee Club, The Kindergarten Club and cast of "Spanish Moon" have all claimed Helen as an active member; best of luck always, Helen.

LUTHER McKINNEY FALCONER

68 RIGGS PLACE

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J.

"Just call me 'Lu'." Could we find a more genial, smiling good sport in these heah parts? Always a gentleman (so the ladies say). In doing things "Lu" says "one at a time"—Archery, first year; Art Club, second year, and General Activities Club, third year. A. T.

WALTER JAMES FALEY

157 PIERRE AVENUE

GARFIELD, N. J.

Wavy hair and a cherubic countenance—that's our "Walt." A first-year basketball player; president of the Camera Club in his second year and a member of the Publicity Committee. With music in his soles, he managed to beat his way into the orchestra as a drummer; and with ink in his pen became Editor of Publications in his senior year. Very interested in the younger generation and A. T.

CECELIA K. FARLEY

14 WELLESLEY STREET

MAPLEWOOD, N. J.

Ceal is a charming little miss who has carried the burdens of her three years' stay in Normal School with a constant cheerfulness. Her sunny disposition and readiness to help has won her many friends. We know she has many talents, especially that of singing. She has belonged to the Glee Club for three years. Keep up the good work, Ceal!

MARGARET FENNESSY

467 PARK AVENUE

PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

Margaret is the practical type of person who makes worthwhile contributions to any task in hand. She has a social tact and quiet charm that make her a desirable friend and colleague. Although active in many phases of school life, "Marge" will always be remembered for her fine work as secretary of the class of '34 in her junior year.

HELEN FEUCHTBAUM

METUCHEN AVENUE

WOODBIDGE, N. J.

Helen's placid nature and her gift of clever wit have enabled her to be happy at all times. She has a professional bearing and a pair of nimble fingers which add much to her charm.

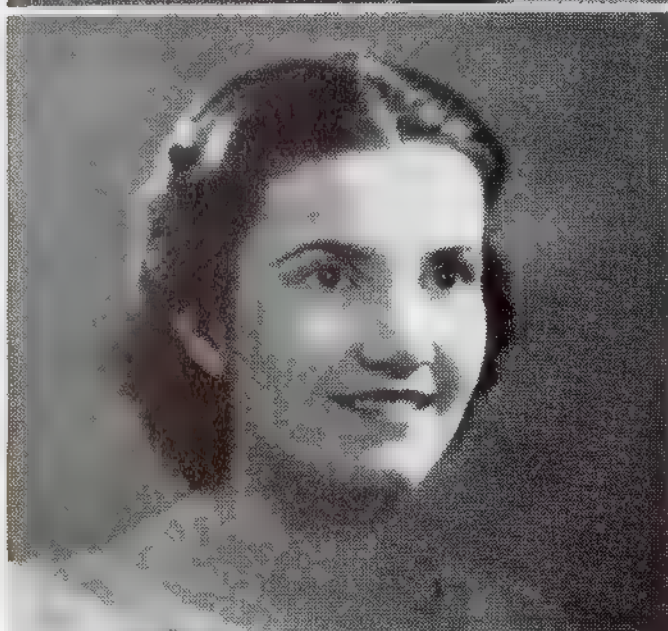

SYLVIA FISHER
634 ROOSEVELT AVENUE
CARTERET, N. J.

Beneath Sylvia's calm, attentive exterior is a ready wit and sympathy. Her ambition, earnestness and desire to succeed should assure her a happy future. Sylvia has been an active member of the Dramatic Club.

CECELIA FLYNN
77 MARION AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

"A quiet taste, a steadfast mind.
Appearance neat and manner kind."

Placid, tranquil, unassuming, she goes calmly on her way. With her delightful poetry and her sweet soft voice, "Ceil" can't help being a success in life. We will always remember "Ceil" for the fine work she did as the student organization treasurer in her senior year.

ROSEMARY FLYNN
LINDEN, N. J.

"When Irish eyes are smiling—"

Good humor, Irish wit, and a vivacious personality make Rose's daily round a jolly one. However, she does her work willingly and earnestly. We are sure that some day Rose will make a first class photographer. Her participation in the Camera Club has been active.

JACK J. FLYNN
444 FULTON STREET
ELIZABETH, N. J.

A square-shooter! A good scholar! Industrious! Jack has the esteem of all his classmates. One of the popular men of the school, Jack will be remembered for his calm disposition and consideration for others.

MILDRED FRIEDMAN
5 SHANLEY AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Mildred is the essence of sweetness, with a charming smile and a friendly manner. Mild-tempered, despite the red hair! She helped willingly in the work of the Social Studies Club and as Secretary of the Library Council.

Nu Lambda Kappa, Orchestra, Music Study Club, International Relations Club.

HELEN E. GALLOWAY

96 LANE AVENUE

WEST CALDWELL, N. J.

Quiet and reserved, but always willing to help one in need—that is Helen. To all her work she lends the same sincerity and eagerness with which she served as Scribe of the Marionette Guild. Hers are the gifts of modesty and high ideals. We know her to be reserved, but gifted with the understanding and sympathy of a true-hearted girl.

ANNE GAULDIN

37 STOCKTON STREET

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Our Anne is a tall versatile girl from the South. Her unique personality, delightful smile and calm Southern manner have won sincere admiration from her classmates. When Anne came here from Paterson in her Junior year, her interests wandered to the Dancing and Swimming Clubs. In her Senior year, she proved herself a girl of ability in the office of Treasurer and Assistant Scribe of the Marionette Guild.

LUCILLE ELEANORA GERARDO

134 LINCOLN AVENUE

ORANGE, N. J.

"Kind tongue that never wounded, sweet mirth that leaves no scar."

Lucille's soft voice and pleasant smile bespeak the harmony within. Her ability, accompanied by such a charming manner, will make her road a smooth one. She worked faithfully as Social Leader and as a member of the Norms staff.

ELEANOR GOLBA

WHIPPANY, N. J.

"On wings of song."

Eleanor's blondness, sweet soprano voice, and vivacious temperament would form a fitting theme for prose or poetry. Her sense of humor and jollity has made her many friends in the Dancing, Glee and Swimming Clubs.

Glee Club, 1; Dancing Club, 2, 3; Swimming Club, 1; Health Club, 1; Music Study Club, 1.

EDWARD ALBERT GORAB

523 MADISON AVENUE

PATERSON, N. J.

Even though "Ed" is one of our more reserved comrades he has won the admiration of his section because of his deftness as an artsman. His rather diversified program included the Art Club, Camera Club, and General Activities Club. Also a member of the basketball squad in junior and senior years.

MIRIAM GREENBERG

43 DEWEY STREET

NEWARK, N. J.

Miriam has been a grand friend and a good student. The Social Studies Club has profited by her services as Secretary and Treasurer. The Library Council and Music Study Club have discovered in her a hard worker, plus her sense of humor which has saved many a difficult situation.

FLORENCE VIOLET GRUENERT

85 HOBART PLACE

GARFIELD, N. J.

"Flo" is our social butterfly and is a nice person to have around. She has a philosophy of life that is a big help in moments of distress. Add to this her God-given gift of humor and you have a real girl.

FLORENCE GUERIN

WHIPPANY, N. J.

This damsel is a vigorous outdoor girl, with a penchant for music. How she can tease the ivories! At her zenith in the outdoors she pilots her car through all weather and delights in plowing through blizzards with a sled. She has been a member of the Glee Club, Dancing Club and the Marionette Guild.

MARIE KATRINA HANKINSON

314 CHURCH STREET

HACKETTSTOWN, N. J.

We admire Marie for her perserverance. Her faithful performance of work and a sense of loyalty to her class and school has made for her many friends. Her participation in all musical affairs will always be remembered by us. She has belonged to the Music Study Club and the Orchestra.

RUTH HARRINGTON

11 RIDGEWOOD TERRACE

MAPLEWOOD, N. J.

Some people display their activity with great noise and bustle, others are retiring and conceal their activities behind a veil of modesty. To the latter class belongs Ruth who has come to us from Mount Holyoke. We are sorry she has not been with us longer. In her short stay she has been active in the Psychology and Kindergarten Clubs.

DAVID HARRIS
90 PROSPECT TERRACE
EAST RUTHERFORD, N. J.

As we peruse Dave's record there is a shining example of working up from the bottom. "Dave" was a member of the Glee Club the first two years, becoming the Vice-President. Starting as a member of the Art Club, elected Vice-President, and President the third year. Assistant Manager of Basketball when a Junior, and Manager in his senior year. Member and President of the School Orchestra.

ALICE HAYWARD
194 NEWARK AVENUE
BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Alice came to us with a year of study at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois. She is also a Registered Nurse, holding a diploma from the School of Nursing, Grace Hospital, Detroit, Michigan. Playing tennis and swimming (especially during her summers at Lake George) are her favorite sports. Much success to you, Alice, and don't let your cheerful and friendly disposition ever change.

ROBERT NELSON HEATH
73 UNION STREET
HACKENSACK, N. J.

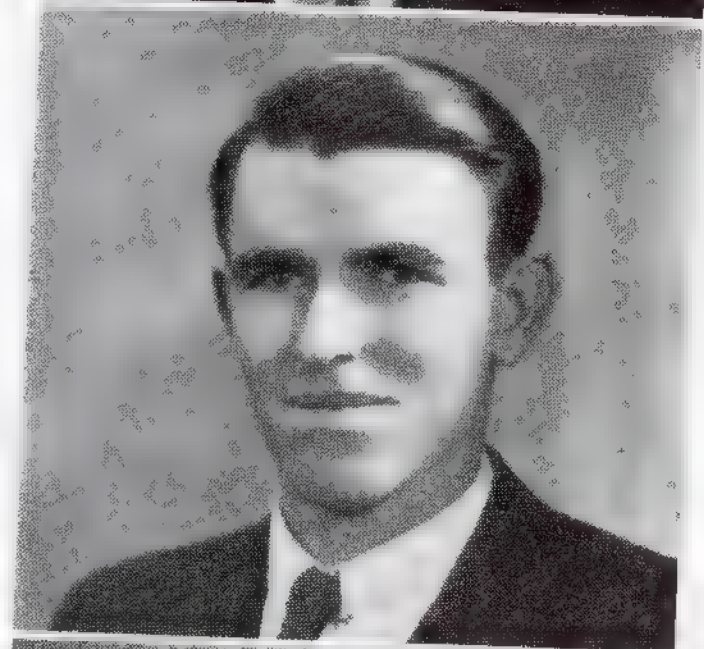

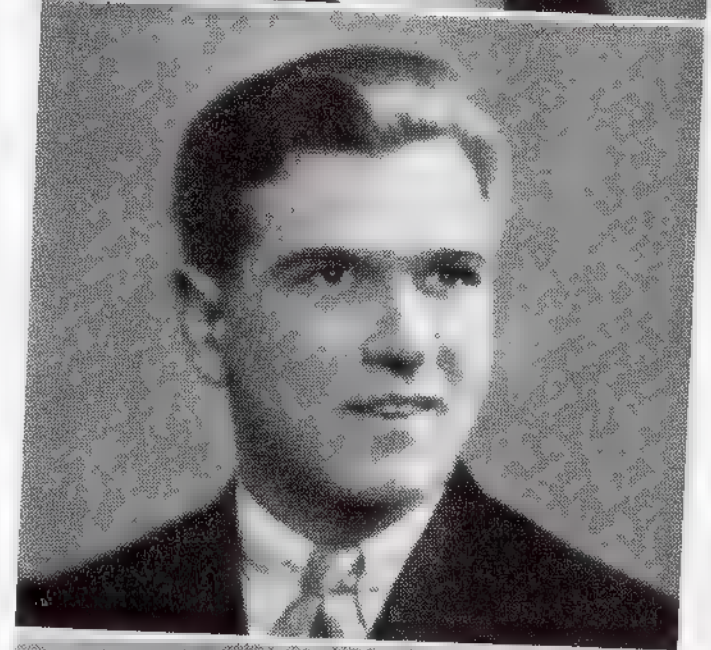

There was a great din without and "Bing" arrived at Normal School in the remains of a Pontiac. Characteristic of his nickname he joined the Rifle Club for first year extra curricular diversion. By this time the fear of being ostracized haunted him and he was forced to give his Pontiac away and at least acquire a Ford. With tranquillity resumed, he was able to spend more time in the General Activities Club and the Archery Club in the third year.

GEORGE M. HIGBEE
WHEATON AVENUE
MILLVILLE, N. J.

Just a conscientious hard-working young "farmer" who dotes on "government" jobs. What an eye for beauty! A first- and second-year Art Club member, and Chairman of the stage committee for the Norms Theatre Guild, '33-'34. An ardent worker for the S. L. F. and secretary for the A. T.

WHILEMINA G. HENDERSON
61 LEXINGTON AVENUE
MAPLEWOOD, N. J.

Billie is a most dependable and sincere friend. She accepts her responsibilities capably, and has taken an active part in the affairs of the school. She first showed her ability by being a member of the Freshmen Constitution Committee. She has been active in the Forum and the Norms. Her ability as a Social Leader was shown when she was one of the Junior Dance Committee.

MAY HILGENDORFF

624 PARK AVENUE

ELIZABETH, N. J.

A halo of golden ringlets—sparkling blue eyes—rosy cheeks—a dimpled chin—all of these hail from Elmora in the form of that darling little imp, May Hilgendorff. She's just as jolly and cheerful as her name and picture imply. To have known her is to have known a really true friend. May's activities included Psychology, Dancing, Art, Glee, Camera and Swimming Clubs. She served as Vice-President of the Psychology Club.

RUTH HIRSHMAN

1214 MIDDLESEX STREET

LINDEN, N. J.

Ruth's pleasing manner has aided her in making a host of friends in the Forum and Dancing Clubs. She has the rare combination of beauty and intelligence, which accounts for her success in the Norms Theatre Guild.

LOUISE DARE HOPKINS

1 GILBERT PLACE

WEST ORANGE, N. J.

A charming, typical "Outdoors Girl," Louise was active as Secretary of the Swimming Club and member of the Riding Club. As Secretary of the Camera Club, she contributed much and worked untiringly. Her other club interests were the Glee Club and Kindergarten Club.

Besides these activities this remarkable girl with the winning personality found time to be an efficient student and a cherished friend to many.

JEAN BRENNAN HOWARD

76 STERLING STREET

EAST ORANGE, N. J.

"Jeannie" as she may be known best, is one who stands out in her own line. She early won for herself an affectionate place in our regard and time has seemed to make it more secure. By her earnestness and perseverance she has won for herself many friends both in and out of the classroom.

CHARLES HOWARD

414 RECTOR STREET

PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

As tactful and humor loving an individual as ever entered our august halls lounged in, in the person of Charlie, who invariably takes "vanilla."

Charlie has spread himself and his abilities all over the school to such an extent that he has been Vice-President of the Science Club and is General Editor of the Norm.

Charlie is so big he's been able to spread himself into the Library Council, Men's Show, Camera Club and Reflector Staff. You'll notice he quickly covers a lot of ground—physically and mentally.

MARIE HUBER
220 ELWOOD AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

When you feel blue—see Marie. She's bound to cheer you up. When you need help—ask Marie. She'll do her level best to assist you. But most of all, when you need a sincere lovable friend, go to Marie and there you'll find her.

ELIZABETH JEAN HUGHES
25 LESLIE STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

Our Betty is one girl in a million. Her charm, her friendly manner, her independent thinking have all been assets in her climb to success. She is a leader whom it is a pleasure to follow. We have learned much through her associations with the Forum, Dramatic Club, Music Study Club, Kindergarten Club, Glee Club, Library Council, Camera Club and Swimming Club. We wish her love, success and happiness.

ANNE SMITH JONES
392 SANFORD AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

We shall always remember Anne for her optimistic nature and happy disposition. Concealed beneath her bright smile is a faithful attitude towards both friends and activities. The Art Club claimed Anne for three years, and thought her a most efficient Secretary.

FLORENCE M. KAEI
18 MAGAZINE STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

Unhesitatingly, we attempt this task of telling you about Florence, the girl whose amusing and exciting tales about "what happened yesterday" have always been the delight of her fellow students. We are sure to miss her with her dancing feet and everlasting smile. She was an industrious Secretary of the Dancing Club, and an interested member of International Relations Association.

SADIE KARSHMER
52 STONE STREET
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.

Although Sadie seldom talks, when she does, every one listens. She reasons clearly and expresses herself with accuracy and precision. She attains lasting friendships because she makes it her business to be pleasant and friendly at all times. Friends know that they may go to Sadie and find a true friend and a real helper! Sadie has been a member of the Dramatic, Dancing and Hand-Craft Clubs.

ALEX KAUFMAN
81 HOBSON STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

Not much of him, but what there is, sure is! Al is a compact bundle of energy, usually doing two or three things at once, but always able to find time, in class, if necessary, for bridge. Al worked hard in the Dramatic Club for two years, earning his pin and guard. He served actively on the Reflector Staff and Student Council, besides being a member of the Camera Club, Forum, Library Council President, and Gym Team. Taken all in all, the picture is of an active, well rounded person bound to get places, and soon.

MARGARET KEISLER
75 FAIRMOUNT AVENUE
CHATHAM, N. J.

It was Wellesley who gave us "Peg." We are truly grateful the opportunity of knowing her. A very dignified, reserved personality covers the priceless intellect which Peg can honestly call her own. The more we are with her, the more we find we are able to benefit by her vast store of experiences. We are sorry she couldn't be with us longer and we hope she will forgive us for calling her "Kysler." Peg belongs to the Science and Kindergarten Clubs.

MARIE KIESLER
57 MYRTLE AVENUE
IRVINGTON, N. J.

Marie's sparkling humor enlivened many an Art Club meeting during her freshman year. During her second and third years Marie belonged to the Norms Theatre Guild, where she created many friendships.

BLANCHE KENARIK
1011 SANFORD AVENUE
IRVINGTON, N. J.

Blanche is one of that select group which has only been with us one year. Who could forget her?—tall, blonde, and graceful. She appears sophisticated, but gives herself away when she comes out with some delightful, naive question. Blanche is a member of the Psychology and Kindergarten Clubs.

ANN KINDT
261 HALE STREET
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.

Ann is one of those rare examples of a perfect disposition — always smiling, never complaining. She is one of our best workers, having been especially active in the Library Council and Basketball. Other clubs to which she has belonged are the Glee Club, Music Study, Nu Lambda Kappa, Swimming Club, International Relations Club, and Kindergarten Club.

ISABEL EUGENIA KNIGHT

338 STUYVESANT AVENUE

LYNDHURST, N. J.

"One of those girls you just can't forget."
One of the most thoughtful, most unselfish and most altruistic girls! A good sport! A cultured individual. A respected leader. What more could one ask of a prospective teacher?

DOROTHY KOELSCH

34 SHERMAN AVENUE

MORRIS PLAINS, N. J.

Versatile—draws a bow as gracefully as she uses a pencil on paper—exponent of excellent social dancing—a little difficult to get to know but worth taking the trouble—reveals her true self to best friends. A variety of interests in things as well as people. The Art Club, Glee Club, Music Study Club, Dancing Club, and Kindergarten Club have benefitted by her talents. Altogether a charming person to associate with.

EVELYN KOHLREITER

220 LAKEVIEW AVENUE

CLIFTON, N. J.

Did you ever see a dream walking? No, then gaze at our Evelyn. Her winning smile and ready wit account for her many friends.
Yes, our Evelyn dances and belonged to the Dancing Club one year, but hear ye—she's going domestic. Yes, you guessed it—she's an active member of the Sewing Club.

EMILY KRUG

33 WASHINGTON PLACE

GARFIELD, N. J.

Emily is not only part of a highly selected group; she can bake cookies and cake. Besides being useful, she's fun to have around, because like "The best of men," she enjoys a joke. For three years she has belonged to the Music Study Club, and the Women's Glee Club, of which she has been Recording Secretary and Assistant Librarian; and this last year she has been a member of the International Relations Club.

EMMA KUINISCH

71 BALL STREET

IRVINGTON, N. J.

Our gay Pierette! With a flair for dramatics and appreciation for poetry, charming "Em" has endeared herself to many. She was an earnest Secretary of the Social Studies Club and an able Social Leader.

RUTH P. KUPPERMAN
5 SHANLEY AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

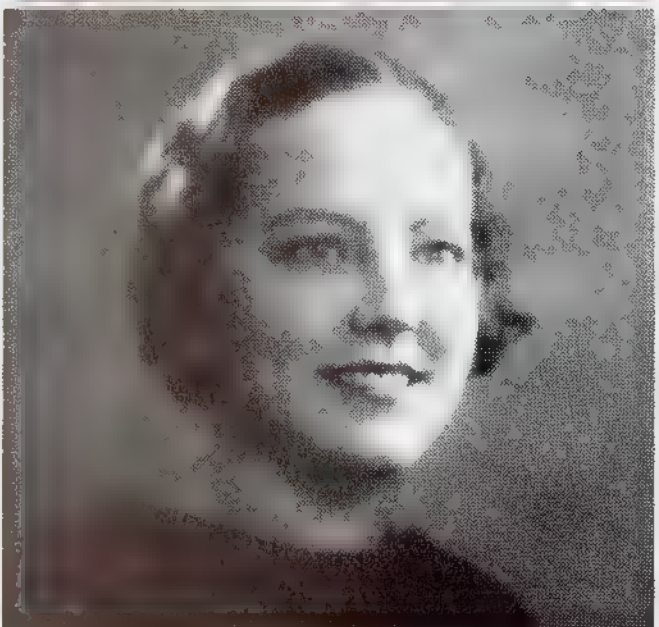

Ruth is a good sport; her friends in the Social Studies Club and Glee Clubs can testify. She is cheerful, and always has a ready smile for those about her. Nu Lambda Kappa has valued her membership.

JEAN LA BOYTEAUX
104 NORTH 22nd STREET
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

They say gentlemen prefer blondes and in this case we entirely agree with them.

It must have been something more than her lovely blonde hair, though, that won for Jean the responsible positions she held.

HELEN LESSER
15 GROVE PLACE
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

Helen's executive ability, cheery smile, and charming personality have made her one of the most popular members of our class. Although we call her "Less," she is more than most people think. Her activities have included: Section Leader, Recording Secretary of Norms, Athletic Committee, Girls' Basketball Team, Vice-President of Junior Class, Chairman of Assembly Committee, Student Council, Chairman of Social Committee of Norms, and Chairman of Planning Committee for Student Loan Fund.

EMILY LEVY
229 RENNER AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Emily, known to her better friends as Libbie, is only five feet tall but what a powerful combination of mind and athletic ability: Libbie's accurate mind reveals itself even in her basketball playing where she puts many of her lengthy opponents to shame. Her sense of humor has disturbed many a pedagogical sitting—but because of big brown eyes and a serious face — she has passed unharmed. Emily has been a member of the Dancing Club for two years.

EVELYN LINDSAY
207 AMSTERDAM AVENUE
ROSELLE, N. J.

Evelyn graduated from Panzer College in 1932. Naturally her interests lie in physical education work, and her summers are spent in counselling, dancing, archery, swimming, and boating. The Hay Diet and golf keep her in trim and by 1936 watch for her name in the National Open Golf Championship. We'll be watching your career with interest, so don't disappoint us, Evelyn.

EDWARD LISTON

470 PARK AVENUE

PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

Ed of the Irish tenor and smile, was a prominent unit of his class. His activities were varied, including the following: Science Club, '32, '33, '34; Men's Glee Club; Norms Theatre Guild; Student Council; Class President; Vice-President of the Science Club; Treasurer of Men's Glee Club; Men's Show, "Thank You, Doctor," and "Spanish Moon."

Ed's tendencies are definitely musical and dramatic. He is the cantor of the class. Happy, talented, friendly, witty—these and work, and always ours.

RALPH CLARENCE LITTLE

135 CENTRAL AVENUE

OCEAN CITY, N. J.

Blown in by those salt sea breezes Ralph made quite a hit with the boys and the girls. That "little" wave gets 'em. Athlete—played deck tennis three years and basketball in the second year. Executive—class treasurer in second year. A general social lion—Art Club, two years, followed by General Activities Club in the senior year.

ANNA L. LUKACH

55 GRANT AVENUE

CARTERET, N. J.

"He who would lay down his life for his friend is a true friend." Ann's a good-natured, likeable sort of person, who is easy to get along with but hard to get along without. In every thing she does, she places "Self" in the background. So charming, considerate and unselfish that all who meet her are immediately drawn to a really true friend. Ann was a good member of the Psychology Club but her efficiency was best shown as secretary of the Studio Club.

EILEEN LUNNEY

121 MONTROSE STREET

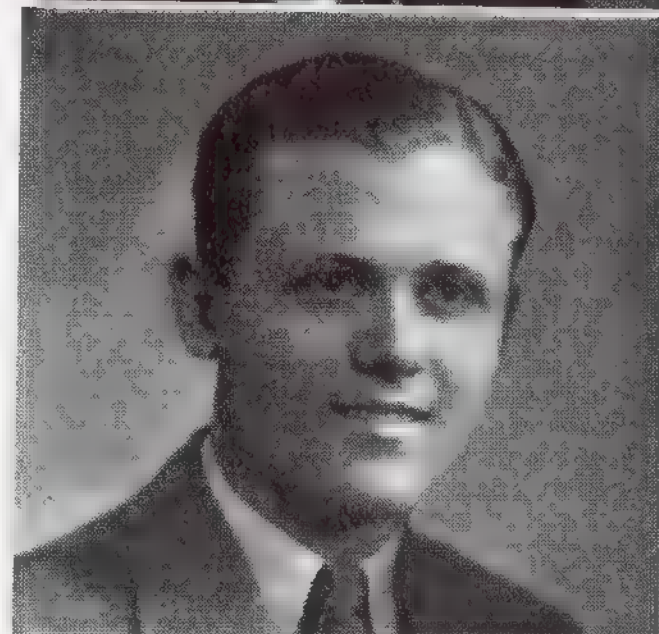

NEWARK, N. J.

Eileen is one of our shy but sweet classmates. Her smile is a source of joy to all who are privileged to view it. She loves dancing and spends most of her spare time devising new steps.

DORIS LYONS

WHIPPANY, N. J.

"I believe I could talk the live-long day and still have something more to say"—and what she does say has a good deal of wit in it. Doris is quiet until moved to speech and then Patrick Henry may look to his laurels!

EDITH IRENE MAFFEY

764 KEARNY AVENUE

ARLINGTON, N. J.

A short brunette is she,
As serious in class as she can be;
But oh! when in her leisure time,
She is jolly, jolly company.

VIRGINIA ANNE MARTIN

8 FERNWOOD ROAD

MAPLEWOOD, N. J.

Kind words and sympathy, watchfulness for others, and a helping hand—these are priceless jewels and Virginia possesses them and uses them to make others happy.

NORMA McCOTTER

162 CHRISTOPHER STREET

MONTCLAIR, N. J.

Norma has won the admiration of teachers and students alike. A lovable personality combined with efficiency in all her undertakings accounts for her success in the Social Studies Club, of which she has been elected Secretary and President.

HERBERT McDAVIT

HIGH STREET

ANDOVER, N. J.

Herb, with his continuous puns, everready smile, beautiful harmonizing, persistent good-humor, and impressionistic (?) poetry, is a sure cure for blues. Although a commuter on the Delaware Lackawanna, he found time in his Senior year not only to take part in the Men's Show, "Thank You, Doctor," and "Spanish Moon," but also to be Class Treasurer, Glee Club Secretary, and a member of the Norms. His other activities include Section Leader, Glee Club and Camera Club.

JUNE McGRATH

FOREST AVENUE

GLEN RIDGE, N. J.

A winning personality and a sweet, bird-like voice have made June one of our most popular Seniors. She has contributed much toward our musical activities having served as President and Vice-President of the Glee Club, Secretary and President of Music Study Club. Her love for dancing helped to make her a fine social leader in her junior year. She has been on the Student Council two years, the Kindergarten Club three years, and was Vice-President of the Executive Board and a member of the S. L. F. committee.

CARLA MERIAM
156 NORTH 15th STREET
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

"A winsome face, a dainty grace."

Carla has that certain something that just makes you like her. Her freshmen year was devoted to the Marionette Guild. The remaining two years were spent with the Glee Club.

JEANNETTE MIDDLEBROOK
22 RED ROAD
CHATHAM, N. J.

Sunny smile, cheery work, happy disposition, friend to all—put these together and you have Jeannette. She has shown great leadership ability, being Section Leader for two years, social leader for one, and Captain of the Girls' Basketball team. A rare sense of humor seems to "pop out" when it is least expected. She has been active in the Swimming, Camera, and Kindergarten Clubs, and is also a member of the Library Council. We wish you great success, Jeannette!

MINNIE MISERENTINO
NEWARK, N. J.

Minnie is a good scout, bright and cheerful and smiling whenever and wherever you see her. She has a friendly disposition and consequently a host of friends. You will always find her where a good time is to be had.

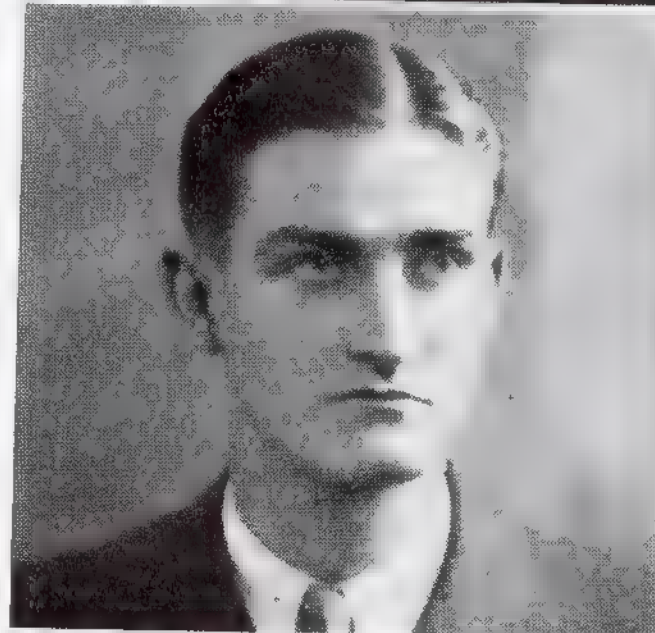

EDWARD JOHN MITCHELL
132 NORTH 13th STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

It certainly is remarkable how a young man with Ed's versatility can direct all of his attention to one club. The fascinating art of photography seemed to hold "Mitch" for three years.

In addition he was elected to A. T. fraternity.

ANGELINA PALMYRA MORESCHI
560 MAIN STREET
ORANGE, N. J.

When you look into the shining brown eyes of our "Angel," you will find the soul of a real friend. One of her greatest ambitions is to be a globe-trotter, and we wish her many and varied adventures. "Angel" has been a member of the Science and Home Economics Clubs, and was elected a Social Leader.

MURIEL ADELE MORRIS

15 GLEN ROAD

WEST ORANGE, N. J.

"A winsome lass is Muriel."

Blond hair, blue eyes, and appealing sweetness arouse protectiveness for Muriel everywhere. Her earnestness and willingness to succeed will assure her a career. Optimism and the twinkle in her eye will add to the host of friends she has made belonging to the Dancing and Science Clubs.

MURIEL NEWMAN

35 GIRARD PLACE

NEWARK, N. J.

A gathering could scarcely be dull if Muriel were present to keep the ball of conversation rolling. Lively, enthusiastic, with a keen sense of the humorous possibilities of life, yet deeply interested in her subjects. The Music Study Club, Norms Theatre Guild and Kindergarten Club hold attractions for her. Muriel has come to us from Harriet Mills Training School. We wish her all success in whatever line she goes into.

JOSEPH A. O'BRIEN

130 JACKSON STREET

PASSAIC, N. J.

"Didja hear the one about——?" We're not sure where Joe gets his stock of yarns, but he's not pulling the wool over our eyes. We know that under the punny, poetic and handsome exterior, there is a wealth of leadership and intelligence. His activities have indeed been varied, including President '33, and Treasurer '32 of Art Club, Librarian of Glee Club, Archery Club, Social Committee, Athletic Committee, Norms, Men's Show, Spanish Moon, Year Book Staff, Student Council, Section Leader, and Golf Manager.

EMILY PADULA

224 PROSPECT STREET

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J.

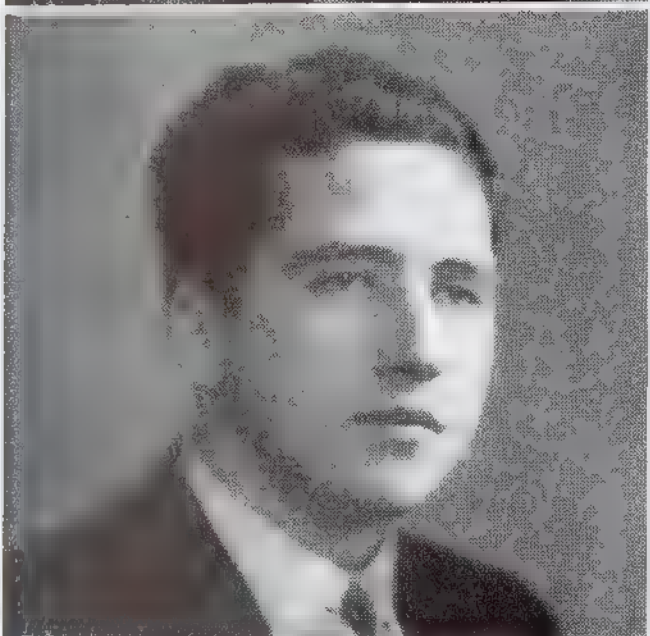

Emily came to us from Beaver College. Even though she has only been with us a short time she has found a place in our group. Her presence in the Kindergarten, Dancing and Swimming Clubs has brightened many club hours. Those who have been with her through the past three years know that Emily is not the demure individual of your first impression, but an unusually good sport.

KATHLEEN O'RIELLY

20 RUTH STREET

IRVINGTON, N. J.

Our Colleen, of the laughing eyes and serious ambitions. With her weakness for detective yarns, and a staunch loyalty to her pals, the class wishes only happiness for the diminutive Kathleen. May she be as successful as a teacher as she has been in Nu Lambda Kappa and the Dancing Club.

IRENE PALMER
964 FERNWOOD AVENUE
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Plainfield High School was proud to graduate Irene in 1931. Her high student ability won for her a scholarship for two successive years at Trenton State Teachers College. Irene came to Newark September, 1933, and immediately became one of us. Her cheerful manner, and delightful personality won for her the office of Social Leader of Sr. A1 Section. Making her own clothes, which she does exceptionally well, is her hobby. She desires more than anything to become a successful grade teacher.

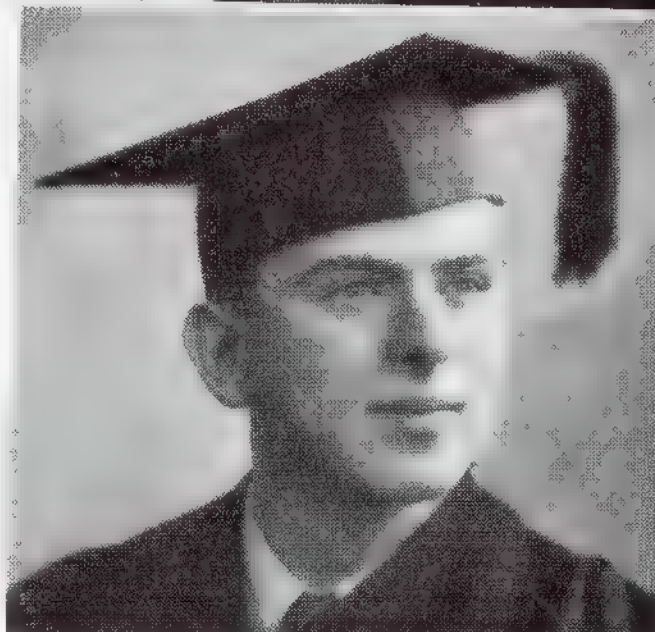

ETHEL CORNELIA PATE
250 PARKER STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

Ethel has a well-known name, but is absolutely individual in spirit, thought, and deed. A magnetic personality—she draws us to her with her depth of understanding and friendly advice.

EDWARD PFEFFER
320 BERGEN STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

A gentleman, a student, a true friend. "Ed" is all of these. Able, competent and poised at all times, "Ed" is a most desirable person to have around.

ELSIE PFISTER
ROOSEVELT AVENUE
LIVINGSTON, N. J.

Gentlemen prefer blondes but not when curly haired Elsie is around. Gather 'round 'n' listen to a little secret. Elsie can cook—and loves to do it, especially to make sweets, tho she needn't because she's sweet enough. But her cooking is scientific, since Elsie's an active member of the Science Club.

AGNES DePHILLIPS
"AGGIE"
43 PARK AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Agnes is a versatile busy bee. She is very conscientious and tries hard to do all her work well. She has served efficiently as Corresponding Secretary, Chairman of the Costume Committee, and Coach of "Man in the Bowler Hat." She has also shown interests in the International Relations and Music Study Clubs.

ADELINE PICOZZI

HOBART AVENUE

SUMMIT, N. J.

Adeline is a quiet but charming girl. She entered N. S. N. S. from Trenton in 1932. Her interest in the Dramatic and Sewing Clubs has won her many friends—and she is a specialist in Biology.

OLGA POZYC

WEST ORANGE, N. J.

"Behind a mask of calmest air
Sits a spirit all asmolde,
With Frankish wisdom rare
That all can find if they but try
To loose the veil that hides our Olga.
Willing friend and able helper,
Jolly pal and true comrade,
This is—Olga.

Camera Club, I; Swimming Club; Psychology Club.

ANDREW HOWELL MILLER

285 MAGNOLIA AVENUE

JERSEY CITY, N. J.

Glorifying the American Tugboat is not the main purpose in the life of this gentleman. He seems to have had time for the Rifle Club, Archery Club and Art Club. In addition acting is second nature to "Andy," well displayed in the Norms Theatre Guild. As Chairman of the Student Assembly, Mr. Miller, if you will remember, was responsible for those eagerly sought Wednesday 11:00 o'clock sessions, A. T.

STEVEN PRENSNER

94 PALMER STREET

PASSAIC, N. J.

As a Scout he pledged to heave with the others. Rowing the boat and supplying blue notes on the life in the Washington Celebration pageant during the first year exemplified that Scout training unquestionably produces versatility. A three-year member of the Art Club, the plaintive mandolin player in the School Orchestra for two years, a graceful deck tennis player and third-year member of the General Activities Club. "Steve" also has an enthralling "line" that voted him the Norms Humor Editor and author of the Senior B 2 personal histories. A. T.

EVELYN PRIBORKIN

419 JELLIFF AVENUE

NEWARK, N. J.

We know Evelyn as a quiet and reserved young lady, the Social Studies Club knows of her alertness. Evelyn's smiling eyes and dimples are a cheerful sight, and they give a hint of her good nature. Evelyn was also a member of the Dramatic Club.

FLORENCE PUTNAM

175 MAIN STREET

CHATHAM, N. J.

Take one winning smile, plus many pleasant ways and a heap of practical efficiency—and there you have Florence.

"Flo" has been one of the prominent members of our class and did much to improve the quality of the student publications.

NELLIE ROGERS QUACKENBUSH

463 WEST AVENUE

SEQUAREM, N. J.

Nellie is that alert little girl who always keeps us well-informed about the affairs in her town. She is quite the efficient artist and illustrator, as Art and Social Studies Club members will testify. She has taken part in many Library Council activities, and has worked diligently on many committees.

ALFRED JOSEPH QUINBY

HIGH STREET

CLOSTER, N. J.

An infectious laugh and a decided flair for electrical apparatus — and you have "Al." Archer extraordinary in freshman year; aviator par excellence in junior year and an all-around General Activitier in the last year. Lest we forget—A Barrymore at the Picture Machine second, third years.

JOSEPH RAM

68 LLEWELLYN AVENUE

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Joe's only regret is that this book is not the product of the "Superior Press." When but a wee freshman he proved his hand at stretching and tacking crepe paper. Automatically he became a member of the Decorating Committee for the entire three years. After being associated in many ways, including Archery Club, Art Club, and General Activities Club—he declares "it's a cinch."

AUDREY GENEVIEVE RASMUSSEN

731 EAST 6th STREET

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

What can be said of Audrey that does not speak for itself in her very appearance? Her well-poised self speaks of the responsibility she has ably shouldered, as President of Nu Lambda Kappa and as Section Leader. Sports found her interested and active—we remember the way she played basketball! May she reach the goals she has set for herself.

RUTH RATNER
228 NORTH ORATON PARKWAY
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

A music lover—a fine piano player—a willing, sincere worker, with a pleasing personality—that's Ruth Ratner. The Dance-Study Club, Norms Theatre Guild, Swimming Club, Sewing Club, Kindergarten Club, and Orchestra all found her an active lively member. She has held office as Vice-President of the Music-Study Club and Secretary of the Norms Theatre Guild. We wish Ruth the best of luck in coming years.

BEATRICE RAUCHMAN
597 BARRON AVENUE
WOODBIDGE, N. J.

Distinctly a leader Beatrice held several offices. Possessed of an artistic talent, she added much of worth to the activities of the Studio Club.

GERTRUDE RICHARDS
175 NORTH MUNN AVENUE
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

Our "Bee" has a decided bent toward dramatics both in school and out, in fact the Norms of which she is now President has claimed her as their own during her three years here. She has ably led us as Section Leader and has participated in the Student Council. She's especially interested in golf and tennis. All agree that Bee is as charming as she is efficient.

ROSE ROCHOW
166 HILTON AVENUE
MAPLEWOOD, N. J.

Rose transferred this year from Beaver College, Jenkinstown, Pennsylvania, where she specialized in Kindergarten work. She is quiet and retiring so that many people have not gotten to know her very well. We are sorry she was not here longer, but, in spite of her short stay, she has become active in the Dance, Swimming, and Kindergarten Clubs.

RUTH ROTHBARD
156 HAWTHORNE AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Tap, tap, here comes Ruth, a gay little tap dancer and a regular all around lover of physical exercise. A visit to the gym during rhythm classes proves this statement. Ruth belonged to the Dramatic Club one year, and danced herself into the Dancing Club during her junior and senior years. We almost forgot to say that Ruth has a cute smile for every one.

PAULINE ROSENBLUM

"PAULA"
125 BREMOND STREET
BELLEVILLE, N. J.

Pauline's cheery voice may be heard from afar at virtually any time discussing this and that and Belleville. Her ability as pianist made her a popular member of the Music Study Club, Dancing Club, and a vital part of "Spanish Moon." That Pauline was academically-minded at all times is revealed in this list of activities: Secretary of Art Club, Library Council, Reflector Staff, Yearbook Staff, Nu Lambda Kappa, International Relations Club, Senior Committee, Freshman Dance Committee and Junior Dance Committee.

EDNA ROSENSHEIN

117 STATE STREET
PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

Edna has been a loyal comrade to her friends in the Dancing and Art Clubs. There is about her a peaceful, homelike atmosphere, which leads us to expect her membership in the Sewing Club. Her success in basketball makes us anticipate her future achievements.

MILDRED M. RUST

787 SOUTH 13th STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

Every school has some students who keep the standards at their highest level. We all agree that Mildred certainly belongs to this group. Aside from this, her congenial personality has made our contacts with her in the Science and Glee Clubs, and in the Library Council, very enjoyable.

EDWIN ALVIN SANDBERG

612 THOREAU TERRACE
UNION, N. J.

Carl Sandberg, misnamed Edwin, supplied the men with timely, subtle humor. As his personally chosen sobriquet indicates, he is one of the mainstays in "No Man's Land."

Because of his cupidity—

Archery Club

Because of his size and weight—

House Committee

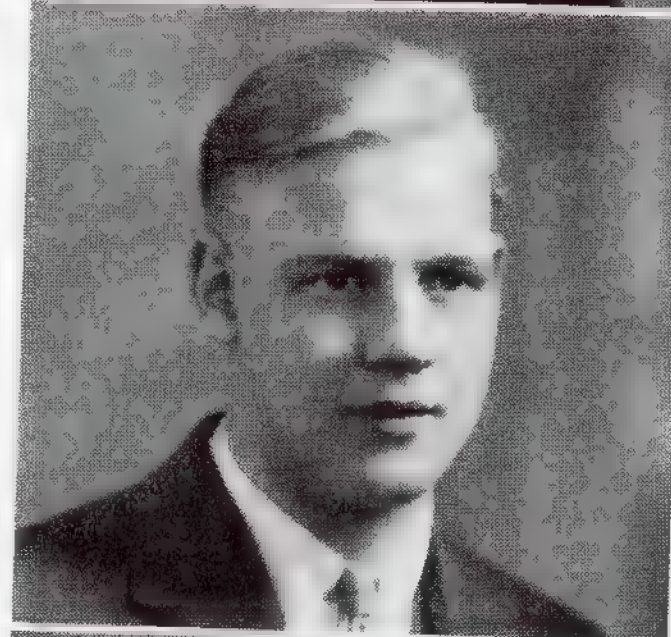

Because of his flighty disposition—

Airplane Club A. T. fraternity.

BEATRICE SCHAUWECKER

116 SANFORD AVENUE
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

"Bee"—a very likeable person, friendly and versatile. She excels in all sports, for three years playing on the Girls' Basketball team and for two years being President of Swimming Club. Taking active part in many clubs—Art, Music, Study, Glee, Kindergarten, and International Relations—has kept "Bee" a very busy young lady. Her friends are many and all wish her the best of luck!

HAROLD MILTON SIEFFER

788 PARK AVENUE

WEEHAWKEN, N. J.

Despite the fact that Harold didn't live in the U. S., we thought we should "take him in." Hammers, triggers, barrels, and bows, paint his background. Perhaps it is his home environment. At any rate, a rifler in his first year and a Robin Hood for three years.

JACK DAVID SHER

273 LEHIGH AVENUE

NEWARK, N. J.

A very fine fellow and an able leader, especially when it comes to leading a band or directing an orchestra. Jack has always taken an active part in student affairs and we will always remember him as the "J. P. Morgan" of the student organization staff.

RHEINHARDT WILLIAM SIDERITS

R. F. D. No. 3

PATERSON, N. J.

Some great men have to work in secrecy. Not "Bunts." No one ever knew just what he was pondering over. This cannot very well be eccentricity for his social paths are many and "well trod." Archery Club during his first year and a member of the Dramatics Club in the second year, each accompanied by basketball. Selected as section Social Leader in third year, while active in the A. T. and General Activities Club.

GERALDINE E. SLIKER

137 FRONT STREET

SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Perservering when she works, jolly when she plays—what better traits would we want in a teacher? Jerry is an unusual combination of mirth and seriousness, as witness her membership in the Dancing, Dramatic and Psychology Clubs.

MARY DAVIES SLINGERLAND

9 CLEVELAND TERRACE

EAST ORANGE, N. J.

A silent, sweet, peace-loving maid. Pleasant and good—but not too good. Quiet, modest and with a sunny disposition. Her spirit is admirably expressed by her soft words. She is not solemn nor dignified, and all who know her admire her.

ERNESTINE SLOAN
1187 CLINTON AVENUE
IRVINGTON, N. J.

Ernestine will be famous for her ready wit and facile tongue in whatever field she chooses. Her clear explanations of obscure points have enabled us to see light when clarity seemed impossible. Her keen mind and pleasant smile will make her life easy and her days enjoyable.

MARJORIE SMITH
105 N. SUSSEX STREET
DOVER, N. J.

Quiet and sweet "Marge" showed her sterling qualities in service. Her untiring efforts were a distinct help to the many clubs of which she was a member.

JAMES SPATOLA
297 SUSSEX AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

A bundle of energy; patient and persevering, an infectious personality, all describe "Jimmy"; a photography enthusiast and literary connoisseur. His enthusiasm is indicative of the heights to which he will rise. His qualities are an assurance of his success. For what more can one ask?

MILDRED STANLICK
WHARTON, N. J.

Have you discovered Mildred? She is sincere and industrious, as fellow members of Nu Lambda Kappa and the Camera Club found out. The Psychology Club learned to appreciate her worthwhile contributions.

ANNA STEIN
105 WAVERLY AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

No one can help liking Anna. There never was a sweeter, more wholesome girl. Talented and vibrant with personality, she has become a necessary part of us. She is "true blue."

HELENA M. STINSON

BERNARDSVILLE, N. J.

Helena M. Stinson is that quiet blonde girl who has found ample time to take active part in the Glee Club, Kindergarten, Music Study and The Science Club. She's too wide-awake to let anything slip through her fingers so she joined the newly organized International Relations Organization this year. Besides this her friends will assure you she is right here when it comes to a little fun and frolicking.

ELIZABETH A. SUDLER

124 SATTERTHWAITE AVENUE

NUTLEY, N. J.

Betty's hair, red gold, especially in the sun, mirrors her sunny carefree nature. This gay manner has enlivened for the Kindergartners our classrooms and for the members of the Dancing and Camera Clubs their weekly meetings. As chairman of the program committee of the Camera Club during her senior year, Betty provided a variety of interesting and worthwhile entertainments.

MARIE DOROTHY SULLIVAN

673 BOULEVARD

WESTFIELD, N. J.

Marie—the girl with the sunny smile. Always ready to help out in any emergency with her keen sense of humor. Her optimistic personality has permeated our corridors since the first day of her arrival and we feel sure that it will continue after graduation.

WILBURT J. SUTTON

"SUT"

27 EAST McFARLAN STREET

DOVER, N. J.

A natural leader and excellent sportsman by unanimous vote. The three years of "kidding" was all in fun and there need be no blindfold test to reveal that we all love "Sut." His wide cycle of activities includes the Archery Club, Basketball, Vice-President and President of the Student Council, second and third years respectively, President of the Airplane Club, second year; completing the circumference with a prolific senior year serving his section as social leader and the A. T. fraternity as Vice-President, and the student body with his effort in the S. L. F. and Student Room Project.

EDWARD TANNENBAUM

68 NORTH 5th STREET

PATERSON, N. J.

"Ed" came to us from Paterson Normal. Practical and artistic. We do not often find these two together but "Ed" combines them. He also played the flute in the school orchestra—but don't hold that against him.

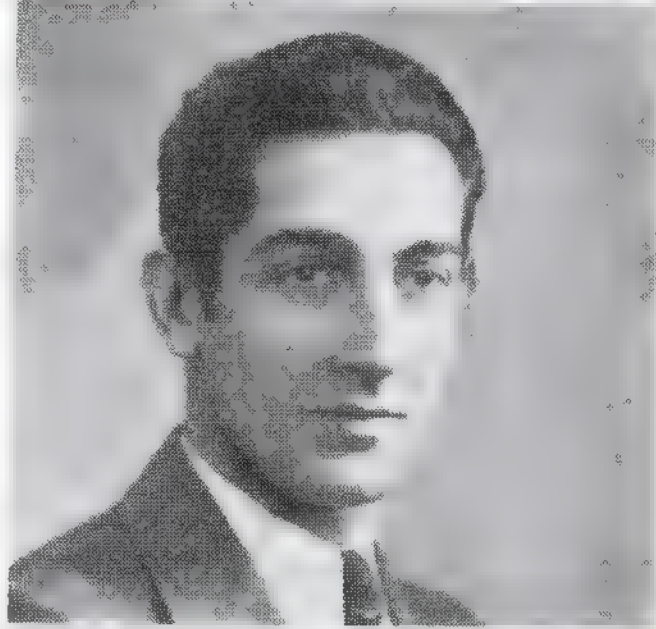

OLGA TATON
126 BROUGHTON AVENUE
BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

A pleasant smile, a friendly way—that's Olga. What rhythm class could be complete without her? A true lover of sports, especially golf and tennis. Olga was a member of the Dramatic Club for one year, and for the past two years has been active in the Dancing Club. Incidentally, when in need of a good secretary—page Olga.

RICHARD THEODORE TAYLOR
82 ORANGE AVENUE
IRVINGTON, N. J.

Where there is a beau, there is a belle and where there is a bell(e) there is a "Ding." Versatility plus. "Dick" is capable of giving John Gilbert, Bing Crosby, and Don Juan a lively contest. A basketball luminary, playing intermural ball the first year and Varsity during second and third years; Dick's senior year saw him as the class President, member of the Social Committee, Student Council Activities Club, and a box office attraction for "Spanish Moon."

JENNIE C. TIMINSKY
86 MYRTLE AVENUE
IRVINGTON, N. J.

Jennie—a sweet girl. She is a quiet girl—reserved in manner with a smile and friendly word for all who come her way. Where could we find a better chum than Jennie, without whom our class could never have been complete?

ANNE TOBIASSEN
530 MARSHALL STREET
ELIZABETH, N. J.

Found—a girl who is sweet, sincere, conscientious and just. Who is she? Why, Anne, of course . . . Dame Fortune met us when Anne consented to be Section Leader in our senior term. She is one of the few people who go quietly and efficiently about their work.

LILLIAN TULBOVITCH
356 MADISON AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Because Lillian is a quiet girl, we can't say much about her—except that still waters run deep and where there's depth there's stability.

MURIEL VAN DUYNÉ

BOX 36

PINE BROOK, N. J.

Muriel is an agreeable and congenial companion, with a happy-go-lucky nature. Those who know Muriel realize that it means something to have earned her friendship. Muriel has belonged to the Glee, Camera and Dramatic Clubs.

ANNE MARIE WALSH

1250 WAVERLY PLACE

ELIZABETH, N. J.

"Think of Anne and think of dancing." She has been a most active member of the Dance Study Club for the past three years, and its secretary for two years.

Her understanding and sincere nature have made her a valuable member of the Nu Lambda Kappa, International Relations Club, Music Study Club and the Kindergarten Club.

We wish you success in all that you attempt, Anne.

RUTH WEAR

BOX 26

NEW VERNON, N. J.

Meet Ruth, a friendly member of the class who has been ambitious and willing to offer her best for the group. Ability she revealed as a Section Leader; loyalty—as member of the Glee Club and as its Librarian. We know these assets will always accompany Ruth. Ruth's attitude as member of the Music Study Club showed us her fine sense of beauty. To know Ruth is to experience a fuller college education.

JEANNETTE WIENER

917 GROVE STREET

IRVINGTON, N. J.

Behind a studious and earnest manner, Jeanette carried a remarkable alert mind, a sympathy and an understanding which endeared her to all who knew her. Coupled with a rare sense of humor, these qualities should help bring the success we all wish her.

GEORGE WILLIAM PAUL WEISKOFF

88 MT. PLEASANT AVENUE

WEST ORANGE, N. J.

George's rotundity probably accounts for his pleasing personality and freedom from anger. A deep appreciation for the finer things naturally bent his social life to the Art Club and the General Activities Club. He is also a fraternalist in good standing (215 lbs.) in the A. T.

IDA M. WILLIAMS
15 DELAWARE PLACE
BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

"It's odd how much she conveys without saying anything, just by a look." Quietly Ida has influenced the Science and Dramatic Club during her membership. Her zeal in all she undertakes will lead her far.

DAVID JOHN WILLIAMS
284 AMPERE PARKWAY
BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

A meticulous young man with a future; debonair and constantly bright as a new silver dollar. Archery, in his first year, furnished him with precision, the Camera Club, in second year, with system, and the General Activities Club, with variety. Dave's alert mind found release in playing basketball during his senior year.

ELMER WILLIAMS
20 OTSEGO ROAD
VERONA, N. J.

Elmer, a "Gentleman from Verona," possesses quite a versatile personality. His likeable ways and cheerful personality have struck a responsive chord in our hearts. Elmer's activities are varied, he is equally at home playing basketball, taking pictures or on the links. His greatest interest is centered on golf, in which he has been our star for three years.

RUTH WILLIAMSON
25 UNION AVENUE
BELLEVILLE, N. J.

A jolly companion and a fine sportswoman is Ruth. Despite her faithfulness to the Swimming Club and the Library Council, she found time for the Glee and Music Study Clubs, as well as for Varsity Basketball. Here's a glad hand, Ruth!

FANNY WISNIK
"FANNY"
KEYPORT, N. J.

Now as for dear old Fanny
Who has her friends in score,
I can but say—pal! Much more,
She stands for everything that's just.
And now to sports which mention I must
Most favorite of all is dancing, eh, Fanny?

Fanny has been a valuable part of the Glee Club (1,2,3) Music Study Club, Nu Lambda Kappa, International Relations Association, and the Swimming Club.

CORRINE WEILER
1453 MAPLE AVENUE
HILLSIDE, N. J.

"Connie" is a sweet, unassuming girl, whose cloak of reticence and silence covers an understanding of people, and an enjoyment of the intellectual side of life. It is an opinion of no little predictive value that she will make a good primary teacher whose responsibilities will not deter her from pursuing outside, cultural interests. During her stay with us, Connie has participated in the Norms Club, Riding Club, and Kindergarten Club.

MRS. GERTRUDE WOODCOCK
44 FAIRMOUNT AVENUE
CHATHAM, N. J.

We are proud to have had Mrs. Woodcock for the short period she has been here. A teacher in New Hampshire and Massachusetts, Mrs. Woodcock decided to return to teaching after a retirement of several years. Therefore, she entered N. S. N. S. in October, 1933. Her sweetness and co-operativeness has endeared her to all of us.

JUNE YOUNG
FRANKLIN, N. J.

Loyally and efficiently June has served as Section Leader and as President of the Library Council. She was a poised demonstrator of experiments when a member of the Science Club. N. S. N. S. will grieve the loss of such a sincere friend.

JEANNETTE AMELIA YOUNG 110 WOODRIDGE STREET
WOOD-RIDGE, N. J.

Jeannette's humorous pranks will long be remembered by everyone. Her pleasant smile and spirit of helpfulness made her a person well worth knowing.

OLIVE YOUNGJOHN
LIVINGSTON, N. J.

Olive is the Pythias to Florence Guerin's Damon. She, too, is robustly active in sports. From manoueuvering a motorcycle to skiing and shooting, Olive shows her distinct abilities. Her artistic bias is towards making marionettes and the appreciation of her by her clubmates is shown by her election to the highest offices of the Marionette Guild.

FLORA ZANFINI
18 GARSIDE STREET
NEWARK, N. J.

The adage still holds true, that good things come in small packages—for Flo is not so very big, yet she has a store of charm and grace. Flora's interests have centered around the Music and Dancing Clubs. She was also a member of the Norms. Those of us who can recall—remember Flo as a vital social leader.

MATILDA T. ZLOTNICK
236 AVON AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Take leadership, an unusually keen mind, a clever sense of humor, athletic ability; add poise, a twinkle of alert brown eyes, and completely disarming smile, and what do you have?—Mattie, with a well-integrated personality. As a proof of her dynamic qualities, Mattie has many friends who respect and admire her.

MILLY ZUCCO
15 BANK STREET
RED BANK, N. J.

"Carefree and gay, I love to while the hours away."

Milly is one of those happy-go-lucky people whom nothing seems to worry. Her good sportsmanship and fun-loving disposition do much to make her popular.

LEON HENRY GAGER
R. D. No. 1, BOX 376
MILLVILLE, N. J.

As a lover of birds he was elected to the Vice-Presidency of the Camera Club in his first year (watch the birdie). His eagle eye then prompted him to turn to the Archery Club in the junior year.

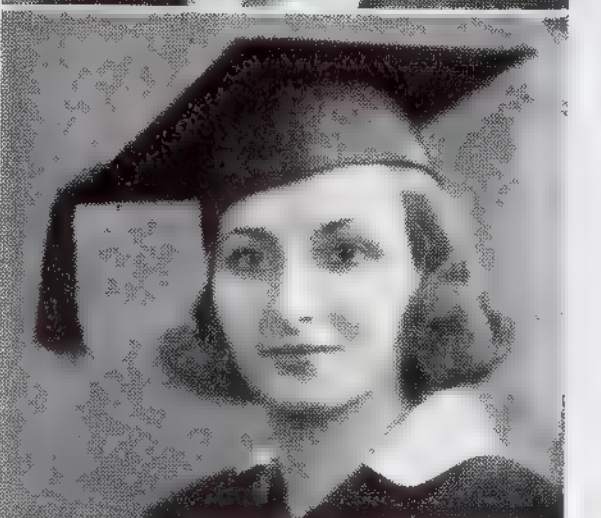

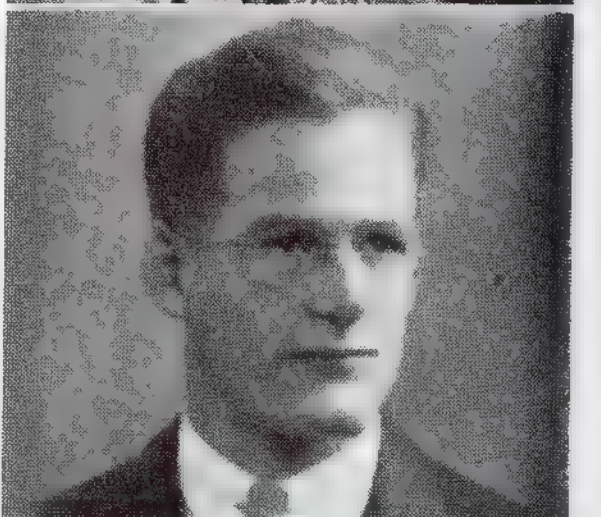

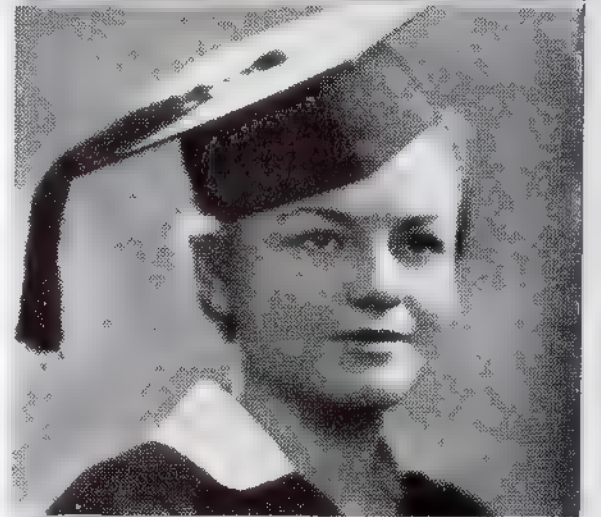

RUTH SCHUANDER
EAST ORANGE, N. J.

Keep your eyes open, for one of these days you'll see Ruth's name blazing in bright lights on Broadway. Her work in the Dramatic Club and her participation in outside plays has shown us that Ruth is definitely on the road to fame. And she is of no little talent as a composer for the piano. Good luck, Ruth!

OLGA HAGEN
179 HILLSIDE TERRACE
IRVINGTON, N. J.

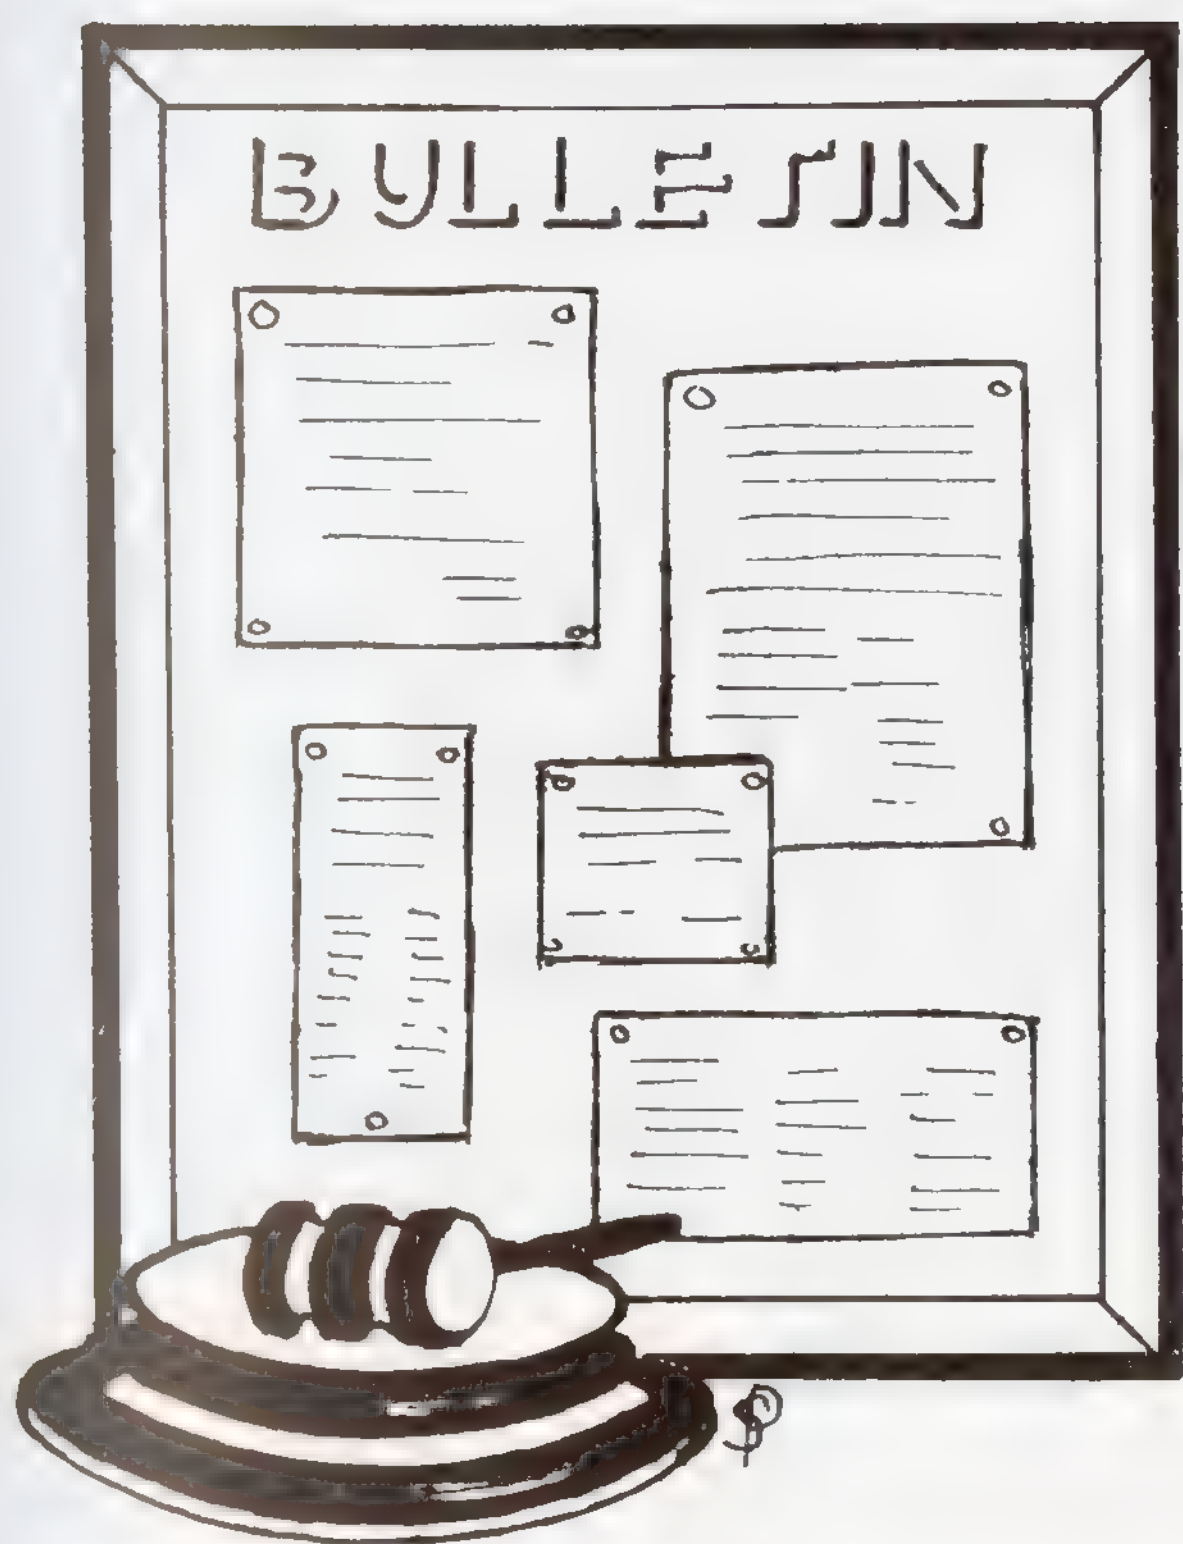

As the quiet river winds its way out to sea, making its permanent impressions on the land, so will Olga remain long in our hearts.

As a section leader Olga showed her executive ability by ably managing her section's affairs.

JUNIOR CLASS

|                               |                 |
|-------------------------------|-----------------|
| President .....               | Charles Detgen  |
| Vice-President .....          | Leonard Johnson |
| 2nd Vice-President .....      | Ford Sheppard   |
| Recording Secretary .....     | Mary Young      |
| Corresponding Secretary ..... | Clarence Wilson |
| Treasurer .....               | George Stryker  |

IN September, 1932, the largest class of Freshmen in the last ten years gathered in the corridor to await their initiation with the spirit of Newark Normal. From this point on they have shown loyalty, co-operation, friendship and many other traits.

The class was quickly organized and ventured into social activities. Among them were the Hallowe'en Masquerade, Freshman Prom, and the Valentine's Day Dance.

On May ninth, the Freshmen put on a talent day which proved interesting from the standpoint of music, dramatics, athletics.

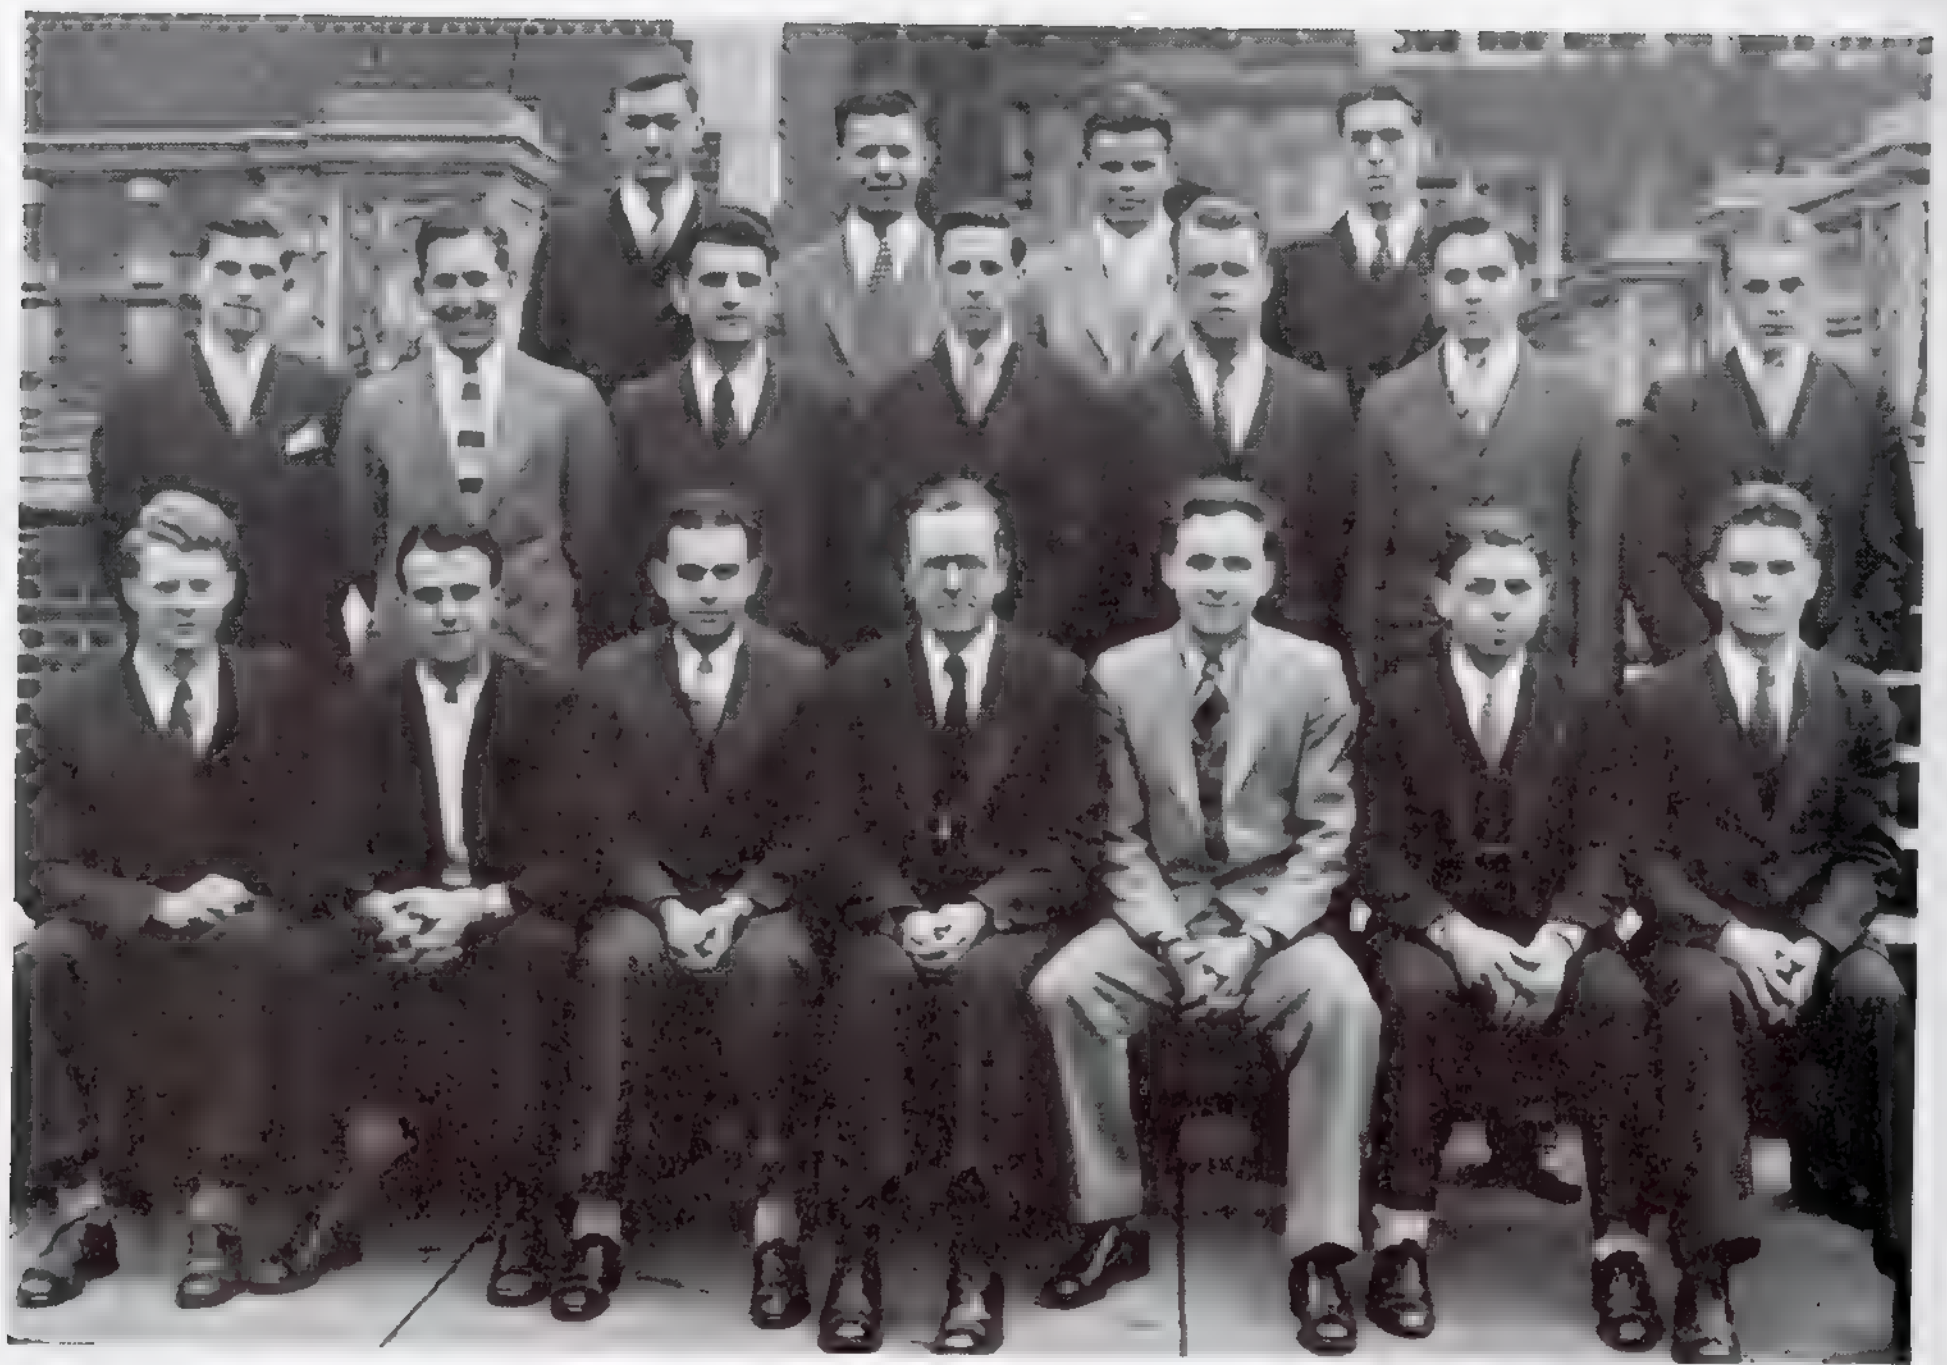

September, 1933, brought Freshman Initiation with plenty of fun for the Juniors and good sportsmanship on the part of the newcomers.

High standards set by us in our first year have been adhered to and are being carried on to even higher degrees, depicting highly selected groups. The social program consisted of an informal Thanksgiving Dance and on March ninth the Elizabeth Carteret Hotel was the scene of a happy Junior Prom.

In February of 1934, the Junior Two section organized as the first Sophomore Class of the four year Industrial Arts Curricula.

We are looking forward to an even more pleasant Senior Year in which we will surpass on previous high standards and gain the scholastic, social and spiritual inspirations of a Senior Year at N. S. N. S.

THE INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLASS OF 1936

|                          |                   |
|--------------------------|-------------------|
| Leonard C. Johnson ..... | President         |
| Benjamin Phillips .....  | Vice-President    |
| John Lucas .....         | Secretary         |
| George Stryker .....     | Treasurer         |
| Howard Junker .....      | Delegate-at-Large |

THIS group of men entered the institution in the fall of 1932 as pioneers in a four-year Industrial Arts Curriculum. The first year in school was spent as a subsidiary of the Class of 1935, sharing its budget, enjoying its social functions and being fortunate in having three of its members among the administrative officers of the class.

As they entered the second year the word "pioneer" took on a new meaning, and a feeling of unrest permeated the group. The outgrowth of this unrest was the severing of connections with the Class of 1935 and the establishment of The Industrial Arts Class of 1936.

After a committee had composed a suitable constitution, the question of class elections became the paramount issue. Although a small group, it was, nevertheless, one of varied opinion. A manifestation of this individuality was the consuming of three hours in election of officers. Out of this chaos there emerged the administration listed above.

Dr. Townsend was successfully urged to become faculty advisor, and the two Deans invited to become honorary members.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

|                           |                   |
|---------------------------|-------------------|
| President .....           | Thomas Jannarone  |
| Vice-President .....      | Fred Lavenburg    |
| Secretary .....           | Agnes Greeley     |
| Assistant Secretary ..... | Monica Flynn      |
| Treasurer .....           | Albert Paskow     |
| Assistant Secretary ..... | Wanda Budnicki    |
| Advisor .....             | Miss Helen Snyder |

PERHAPS the greatest comedown any of us has ever experienced was our change of state from lofty Seniors to lowly Freshmen. At high school, there had been none more important, none better known than we—at Newark Normal there were none less observed, none less significant. Yet as the days passed by, we began to realize that at Normal School there was a truly democratic spirit—there was no class distinction. Instead of the "bow down before the mighty Juniors" attitude which we had expected at our initiation we found our upper class men endeavoring only to test our good-sportsmanship. As a reward for good behavior (or was it simply our good looks?) the solicitous Juniors gave us one of the most delightful receptions we have ever attended. Came Hallowe'en and with it our Freshman party. Even the most dignified of us couldn't resist the Virginia Reel. As another evidence of the fact that we were on a par with our big brothers and sisters, the Juniors and Seniors, we had a Freshman dance.

As we became more and more an integral part of Normal School in extra-curricular activities by donating a number of stars to the basketball and gymnastic teams and by contributing our services to the various programs for the Student Loan Fund, we likewise were improving our intellects in the approved N. S. N. S. manner. As part of a noble experiment, quite a percentage of our students entered a liberalized curriculum. Though it is impossible at this point to judge its final success, those participating in it are well satisfied.

It seems incredible that in these few months Newark Normal has come to mean so much to us. It has become something more than a place in which to learn—it is almost another home. May we not only endeavor to get the utmost from our years at this institution but let us also determine that by the time we leave, it will be with the knowledge that we have made our contribution to this, our other family.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

|                        |                         |
|------------------------|-------------------------|
| William Denberg .....  | President               |
| June McGrath .....     | Vice-President          |
| Jean LaBoyteaux .....  | Recording Secretary     |
| Gladys Krug .....      | Corresponding Secretary |
| Cecilia V. Flynn ..... | Treasurer               |
| Joseph Domarecki ..... | Assistant Treasurer     |

ADVISORY MEMBERS:

|                             |           |
|-----------------------------|-----------|
| Dr. M. Ernest Townsend..... | Principal |
| Bertha R. Kain .....        | Dean      |

THIS board is what its name implies—the executive body which puts into effect decisions of the Student Council and Student Body at large. Its members have been real leaders whom we are proud to have representing us. Their accomplishments during the year have been real achievements in the field of student leadership.

STUDENT COUNCIL

|                      |                   |
|----------------------|-------------------|
| President .....      | Wilbur J. Sutton  |
| Vice-President ..... | David Harris      |
| Secretary .....      | Margaret Fennessy |
| Treasurer .....      | Emil Jantusch     |

THE Student Council's activities have been largely carried out by committees selected from its members. The council has done more than will ever be known for the now famous "student loan fund" because individual members have done heroic work. The council as an organization has been working for a used book exchange, and by the end of the year hope to accomplish this. One more important thing the council is planning to do is to attend the Eastern States Conference held at the Hotel Pennsylvania each year. In addition to merely attending we hope to entertain several visiting schools the day before the conference, and so spread the fame of our now famous Normal School to new places.

PUBLICATION COMMITTEE

Faculty Advisor .....Mrs. Vaughn Eames

Chairman .....Walter Faley

Charles Howard

A. Kaufman

H. Katz

F. Lewis

D. Russomano

I. Siegel

THE Publication Committee, in charge of all publications for the year, has worked untiringly to make each of the five issues of the Reflector a success and to make the Norm the best yearbook possible. Their chief function was to decide matters of policy, to select staff members and to organize the work on publications. To their successors, they leave the challenge of making a bigger success of the Reflector and of producing a yearbook which will help to establish and carry on the fine sort of traditions which characterize our school.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

|                      |                 |
|----------------------|-----------------|
| President .....      | Charles Detgen  |
| Vice-President ..... | Emil Jantusch   |
| Secretary .....      | Herbert McDavit |
| Treasurer .....      | Edward Liston   |

THE Men's Glee Club is one of the few clubs in the school open exclusively to men students. The purpose of the group is two-fold. The primary objective is to serve the school whenever the opportunity affords. The second aim is to satisfy a love of music and to obtain the good fellowship derived from such a group.

During the last year the club has participated in many programs. In the fall, these men played a very active part in the Men's Show.

Together with the Women's Glee Club, the men sang in our customary Thanksgiving and Christmas programs. No one who has sung in these programs will ever be able to forget their impressive beauty and deep-felt significance.

In addition to the enumerated activities, the club sang frequently at Faculty luncheons and also at an evening conference.

Miss Dunning ably conducts the chorus, and Miss Rogers is their ever-faithful pianist.

ORCHESTRA

|                      |                    |
|----------------------|--------------------|
| President .....      | Gladys Krug        |
| Vice-President ..... | Marie K. Hankinson |
| Secretary .....      | Doris Creamer      |
| Treasurer .....      | Walter Faley       |

THE orchestra, while apparently not as active as other organizations in the school, has been an important part of our school life in that it has provided for those whose interests tend toward participation in instrumental music, a fine outlet for artistic expression. Though still in an embryonic stage, the Orchestra is a growing institution, with possibilities of becoming a vital part of Newark Normal.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

|                               |                     |
|-------------------------------|---------------------|
| President .....               | Charlotte Eisele    |
| Vice-President .....          | June McGrath        |
| Second Vice-President.....    | Marjorie Burdick    |
| Recording Secretary .....     | Adelaide Cronk      |
| Corresponding Secretary ..... | Virginia Carrington |
| Treasurer .....               | Lois Ormiston       |
| Assistant Treasurer .....     | Helen Wade          |
| Librarian .....               | Ruth Weir           |
| Assistant Librarian .....     | Emily Krug          |

THE Women's Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Dunning with the able assistance of Miss Rogers, has enjoyed a full year of activity in both evening and morning programs.

The evening appearances were at the Guidance Conference and at the formal opening of the Junior College. The morning programs were a Fall Concert, participation in the Christmas entertainment, at the reception of Governor Moore, a Spring Concert, and at graduation. Besides these many activities, several members of the club took part in the Dramatic Club play, "Thank You, Doctor."

ART CLUB

|                          |                                              |
|--------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| President .....          | David Harris                                 |
| Courtesy President ..... | Henry Bookstaber                             |
| Vice-President .....     | Joe Domarecki                                |
| Secretary .....          | Ruth Sur                                     |
| Treasurer .....          | Ford Sheppard                                |
| Advisors.....            | { Miss Frances MitchellMiss Sybil Browne |

THE Art Club has been one of the most co-operatively active organizations in the school. Exhibits of the work of its members, making costumes and stage settings for the Elizebethan Christmas program and other productions and helping other clubs to stage exhibits and programs have been some of the activities carried on during the year. In co-operation with the Library Council, the Art Club purchased a large frame to be placed in the corridor near the front entrance, in which paintings by prominent artists are displayed. Progress, service and enjoyment have been the slogans of this intensely active organization.

CAMERA CLUB

|                             |                 |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|
| President .....             | Elmer Williams  |
| Vice-President .....        | James Spatola   |
| Second Vice-President ..... | Louis Brody     |
| Secretary .....             | Harry Katz      |
| Treasurer .....             | Phyllis Calicio |
| Advisor .....               | Mr. M. Richmond |

LOOK at the birdie! Hold that pose! Smile, please! and other such pet phrases peculiar to photographically minded individuals, are very common throughout the entire year, within the walls of our institution.

Meetings are held weekly in the regular meeting rooms but the members are active every day, and, occasionally, at night. It is not an uncommon thing to have a camera click at you when you least expect it. Such has been the life of a Normal School student ever since the club decided to keep a record of all school activities.

The club has been fortunate in becoming the proud owners of a "real" moving picture camera and some very interesting "shots" have been taken of student activities.

Next year the club expects to sponsor an "inquiring photographer" contest. A word to the wise is sufficient.

NORMS THEATRE GUILD

|                               |                   |
|-------------------------------|-------------------|
| President .....               | Gertrude Richards |
| Vice-President .....          | Jean La Boyteaux  |
| Recording Secretary .....     | Dorothy Bederski  |
| Corresponding Secretary ..... | Dorothy Russomano |
| Treasurer .....               | David Kantor      |

THE motivating force behind the activities of the Norms is of benefit to our student body as well as the institution as a whole. Our aims are to give the members a keener appreciation of the drama, an opportunity for self-expression through dramatics, and an acquaintance with the best plays.

In November the Jersey City Dramatic Club invited all Dramatic Clubs of New Jersey Normal Schools to attend a conference. Each club was to present a program. Our Norms was represented and contributed its talent in a one-act play, "The Crystal Gazer."

As is the precedent for the Norms to take charge of an assembly program, they presented, in January, the one-act play, "Highness," which displayed some excellent dramatic talent.

In February, the Club contributed to the Student Loan Fund by donating the proceeds from an afternoon performance in which the play, "Thank You, Doctor," was given. It was very successful.

Each term pins are awarded to members who have done outstanding work for the term. Those receiving pins this fall were: May Lowenthal, Edna Doll, Anthony Tortorello, Jean Howard, Mary D'Amico, Gertrude Richards.

NU LAMBDA KAPPA

|                      |                  |
|----------------------|------------------|
| President .....      | Audrey Rasmussen |
| Vice-President ..... | Mary Campbell    |
| Secretary .....      | Margaret Lynes   |
| Treasurer .....      | Dorothy Busch    |

THIS year Nu Lamda Kappa has added weekly meetings to its activities. The members of the weekly group hold informal discussions about personalities of the literary field, bringing out the character, activities and writings of the authors. The monthly meetings are held for the purpose of bringing writers of the field to speak before the entire club. In addition to this, the club encourages creative work among its members, and keeps a constant watch for noteworthy work done by students in the school.

THE MARIONETTE GUILD

Master Craftman .....Olive Youngjohn
 Assistant Craftman .....Helen Collins
 Keeper of Funds.....Anne Gauldin
 Advisor .....Miss Milheis

THE Marionette Guild has worked faithfully this year under the guiding hand of Miss Milhies, the faculty advisor. The members are free to choose that phase of Marionette construction which interests them most. If you should visit one of our meetings you would find a variety of activities going on such as clay modeling of heads, the making of paper masks, and old stockings changing into clever, smiling puppets.

Our most important activity this year was the sponsoring of the New Jersey Public School Marionette Guild Conference, whose purpose it is to foster marionette activities in the public schools. This organization originated in 1933. The finest dolls and productions were exhibited.

The interest in Marionettes is growing and it is the hope of the Marionette Guild to help to promote this interest and spread the happiness and joy, which comes with the construction and manipulation of marionettes, to the boys and girls of our state.

DANCE STUDY CLUB

|                      |                    |
|----------------------|--------------------|
| President .....      | Margaret Fennessey |
| Vice-President ..... | Eileen Lunney      |
| Secretary .....      | Anne Walsh         |
| Treasurer .....      | Ella Mae Shaeffer  |
| Advisor .....        | Mrs. D'Angola      |

THE Dance Study Club has turned to both a joyous and a serious study of dancing, ancient and modern, from barbaric rhythm to modern trends. As in other years, the chief aim of this club is to co-operate with other clubs in any way to aid them in their programs. One ambition of the club is to give the school some instruction from well-known schools of social dancing.

As a part of their development, members of the club have been sent to New York to the student dance recitals, where experts in each type of dance explain and demonstrate their theories.

The Dance Study Club sponsored an auction sale for the Student Loan Fund. At a dance symposium conducted for a full day at Montclair State Teachers' College, the group were present and participated in the conference.

WOODWARD SCIENCE CLUB

President .....Walter Kabis
 Vice-President .....June Young
 Secretary-Treasurer .....Cecille Domkafski
 Corresponding Secretary .....Elizabeth Budarf

WHEN the Nature Study Club last October decided to honor its rounder, Mrs. Laura Woodward Abbott, by renaming the organization the Woodward Science Club, it had, by no means, already fulfilled its purpose. To really honor that amiable person who is largely responsible for the prestige the club holds, its members promised that they would put forth their best efforts to heighten that prestige.

We wish to publicly thank Mrs. Abbott for her unselfish effort with us, and to extend our most sincere wishes for good health and happiness in her retirement.

Even with the enthusiastically received announcement of our club's new name we showed the school that we "meant business" by presenting a demonstration of liquid air as an assembly program. According to several of the faculty, the program was among the best of its kind ever given by the students themselves.

We have accumulated a reasonable amount of material supplies and appropriate literature to aid in the efficient execution of club activities. We plan to place at least one scientific magazine in the Reading Room for student and faculty use.

The Woodward Science Club has, during the past two terms, affiliated itself with the Student Science Clubs of America and the Audubon Bird Society and proposes to become associated with the Illinois State Academy of Science. All are National Organizations.

And, of course, we cannot help mentioning the outing to Rye Beach, sponsored by the Club for the benefit of the Student Loan Fund. We feel it unnecessary to say much about that, because experiences on the boat and at Rye Beach are still fresh in the memories of all.

To our advisors, Mrs. Elsa Decker and Mr. Guy Bruce we extend sincere expressions of appreciation for the helpful criticism, aid, and advice they always have given in time of need.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

|                      |                |
|----------------------|----------------|
| Advisor .....        | Miss Thompson  |
| President .....      | Alex Kaufman   |
| Vice-President ..... | June Young     |
| Secretary .....      | Stephanie Keyl |
| Treasurer .....      | Harry Katz     |

THE Council is an organization unique in the school. Its purpose is primarily service; its motto, "Help Others." Only those who have successfully completed a series of units of work, under supervision, become eligible for admission to the Council.

During the past year, the Library Council has had noted speakers, book collectors and experts in other fields as guests at teas; it has promoted and rewarded initiative in its members.

The primary work of the Library Council is naturally in the Library. Its members assist the regular staff in all phases of the Library work. Each member puts in at least one hour per week in the library as one of his duties as an active member of the Council. The types of work done include desk duty, shelving, filing, clipping, keeping bulletins; checking magazines and articles therefrom for the use of the faculty, and innumerable other jobs, big, and little.

The outstanding social event of the year was the bridge-tea at which the Alumni returned to visit and spend a social afternoon with the present members. For next year, the Council looks forward to greater service and progress.

| Faculty Advisors.....         |  { Miss Barber Miss Flaacke Mr. Sloan  |

FROM sixteen to sixty! Such has been the growth of a comparatively new organization. It was organized last year by students who felt that knowledge gained in the club could be profitably used in student-teaching situations.

The object of the Social Studies Club is to provide opportunity for its members to become skillful through practical experience in developing units of activity through actual organization of material and manipulation of tools.

At the beginning of the school year, the club voted to carry on a unit dealing with life in Egypt. This has been carried on through the year and included such activities as a visit to the Egyptian Exhibit in the New York Museum, a party with Egyptian food, music, and dance and an assembly program of Egyptian life which included an ancient ceremonial dance. Various phases of Egyptian life were exhibited in the museum cases in the corridor.

RIDING CLUB

Faculty Advisor .....Mrs. St. Clair

“HORSES! Horses! Crazy over horses!” Well, not exactly crazy, but both the faculty and student groups of the riding club are fond of horseback riding, and may be seen often on Sunday mornings, atop some favorite steed, enjoying the beautiful scenery and exhilarating air of the Orange Reservation. The club has enjoyed several “Breakfast Rides,” cooking breakfast after a brisk morning jaunt. As for the proverbial mantelpiece, who doesn’t like eating a la buffet?

THE MUSIC STUDY CLUB

|                        |                                      |

| Secretary .....        | Doris Lyons                          |
| Treasurer .....        | Marjorie Burdick                     |
| Program Committee..... | { Gladys KrugVirginia Carrington |

WE are proud to say that the Music Study Club grows each year. At the present time it is one of the larger clubs in the school. Since it meets at three o'clock, music lovers active in other organizations are able to attend our programs.

We have had a very interesting, enjoyable and worthwhile year, with many delightful programs. We are fortunate in having more of the stringed instruments represented this year; which has made possible violin duets and ensemble numbers.

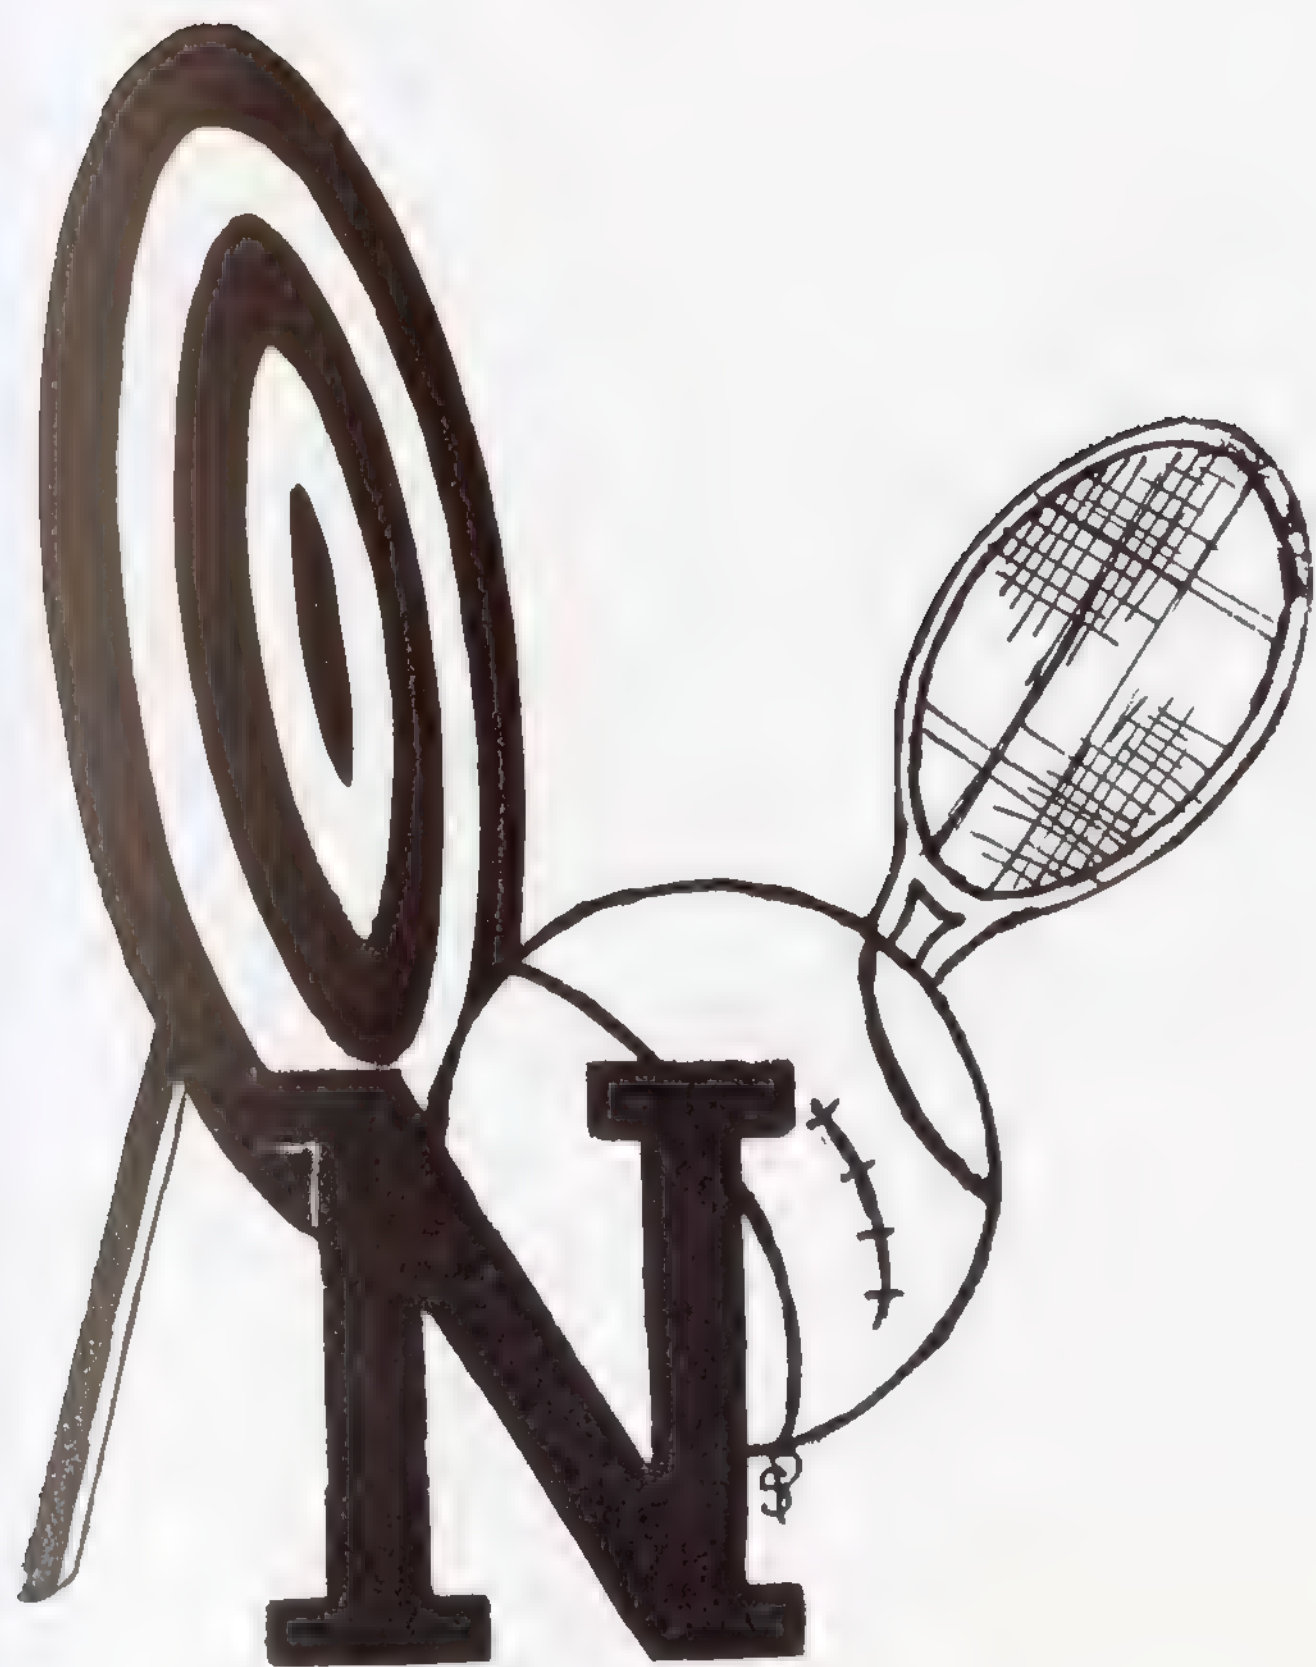

Our auditorium program was enthusiastically received. A composition which attracted particular comment was the Overture from the Magic Flute by Mozart, played by four pianists at two pianos.

Plans for the future include a Victor Herbert program, and the preparation of vocal, piano, and string ensemble numbers to be given in the auditorium.

We are going to lose at graduation some very valued members, who have given much of their talent and energy in carrying forward the work of the club. They will be greatly missed. To them we extend our sincere wishes for success!

SPORTS

BASKETBALL

THE 1934 basketball team under the direction of Coach Joseph A. D'Angola, Dean of men, enjoyed the most auspicious season since the inception of basketball five years ago. The team won nine games and lost five. After several weeks of intensive practice Coach D'Angola arrived at a smoothly working combination that provided us with numerous thrills and plenty of good, sound basketball.

The season was ushered in January 5, on our court with a well-earned victory over the Jersey City Normal School. The score was 31 to 27. On January 9, a powerful Trenton State Teachers' outfit took the measure of our boys by a 35 to 30 count at the Trenton gymnasium. A reinvigorated team took the floor January 12, to capture their second victory of the season, downing the Paterson Normal quintet before a large home crowd, 23 to 17. Traveling to Westfield January 19, we won our third game from the Westfield Rangers, 30 to 20. At home again January 23, the Newark College of Engineering squad interrupted our two-game winning streak by a three-point margin, 29 to 26. From January 27, our team showed its true mid-season form, starting a succession of victories that lasted through five hard-fought games. At home the Wilson State Teachers' College of Washington, D. C., was the first to be toppled, 33 to 29; then in order, at Montclair, January 31, the Montclair State Teachers' College by a score of 29 to 19; at Jersey City, February 7, the Jersey City Normal School, 33 to 31; February 16, at our court, we mounted the heights by scoring a 53 to 22 victory over the Newark Tech team; February 12, the Alumni, 35 to 27. It seems paradoxical that after attaining the fifty-point mark we should be brought to a new low score in our game with Paterson, on February 21, in which the Paterson Normal School won by a 13 to 11 victory. In a return contest with the Newark College of Engineering at the Engineering School, February 24, we won by a 38 to 24 count. February 28, at our gymnasium, the Montclair State Teachers' College settled our hopes for a double victory by winning 25 to 18. The finale at Washington, March 2, was won by our hosts, the Wilson State Teachers' College, 42 to 39, although we played one of our best games of the year.

Eight members of the team were presented with major varsity emblems by Coach D'Angola, at a testimonial banquet given at the Newark Athletic Club by the Newark Normal Alumni Varsity Club. Players to receive the insignias were Captain Richard Taylor, John Miedema, Walter J. Faley, Samuel Chernetsky, Edward Gadek, Charles Detgen, Arthur Wenzel, and Manager David Harris.

BACK ROW

Mr. J. D'Angola, Rodman Collins, Vincent Sullivan, Milton Lemerman, Thomas Jannarone, Jim Jantusch, David Harris.

FRONT ROW

Walter Faley, Edward Gadek, John Miedema, Richard Taylor, Charles Detgen, Samuel Chernetsky, Arthur Wenzel.

GOLF

Captain .....Elmer Williams
Manager .....Joseph O'Brien
Assistant Manager .....Jim Jantaush

THEY'RE teeing off—on down the course,
Normal balls well driven with force,
Seek some favorite lie to rest
Till further urged upon the quest.
Then up the hill and o'er the rise,
Ever surging toward the skies,
They're hit—to fall upon the green
And dazzle with their whitish gleam.
Near the cup the golfing folks
Meet and finish up their strokes.
Thus thru the game these sporting souls
Match their play for eighteen holes.
Until, hurried by the setting sun,
The match is over! The game is won!

We've thrilled to watch the golfers drive!
We've hardly breathed as they parred at five!
On sloping banks of greens we've sat,
Nor dared break the silence of the tricky trap!
But which of us can ever say,
The joys all crowded into their lives today?

JOE O'BRIEN.

Consistent with other competitive teams in Normal this year, Golf promises to field the strongest team yet to represent us on the links. Organized three years ago, this activity has had a remarkable growth. The first two years found us competing mainly against teams of high school level. This year the schedule arranged by Joe O'Brien and Jim Jan Taush includes teams representing Panzer, Upsala, Montclair Teachers', Dana and Newark College of Engineering. Prospects for a successful season are bright, although the team is somewhat handicapped by a lack of practice facilities. Playing number one position is Elmer Williams, veteran of three years and a consistently low scorer. Art Wenzel, star performer with Cranford High School, holds down number two, while Jack Lucas and "Bunts" Siderits take care of positions three and four respectively.

Coach D'Angola has somehow found time to lend his services to help the team. Manager Joe O'Brien and his assistant, Jim Jan Taush, are doing their bit, while many members of the student body are showing remarkable interest by attending the matches.

Putt! Putt! Putt! Putt! Putt! Putt! Let's go, Team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

PLAYING their second year of outside competition, the Girls' Basketball Team, under the able leadership of Jeanette Middlebrook, have compiled an enviable record. By winning eight out of eleven games played, the shooting lassies have proven themselves to be among the leaders in the state.

Too much credit cannot be given to Coach Helen Snyder and Mrs. St. Clair whose help and advice proved invaluable in the defeat of the Alumni, Dana (twice), Jersey City, Paterson, Flatbush, Trenton and Montclair. Both Montclair and Upsula hold victories over the girls, the latter winning two games.

The team this year was composed of the following members:

| Forwards             | Guards          | Centers              |
|----------------------|-----------------|----------------------|
| Jeanette Middlebrook | Ruth Williamson | Hellen Collins       |
| Ella May Sheaffer    | Ruth Dorer      | Jane Harahan         |
| Emily Levy           | Margaret Hall   | Ruth Adams           |
| Ethel Miller         | Ethel Ward      | Anne Doyle           |
| Doris Creamer        |                 | Beatrice Schauwecker |
| Edna Doll            |                 |                      |

TENNIS

THE tennis team started its second season as an interscholastic sport this year with prospects for even greater success than was gained in its debut in the spring of 1933. It is rapidly becoming one of the school's more important sports and bids fair to become the most popular with both sexes.

Last year the team played a schedule of three games, defeating the Jersey City Normal School in two of them and losing the third to Montclair State Teachers' College.

The team this year is composed of Captain Ford Sheppard, George Weinik, Howard Junker, Philip Goldberg, and Henry Bookstaber as the regulars, with Nick Fiore, Henry Yam, and Joseph Domarecki in reserve.

Manager Howard Junker has scheduled the representative college teams in this vicinity as our opponets. All of our matches are to be played away due to a lack of playing facilities at home.

GYMNASTICS

IN January, 1934, a gymnastic team was inaugurated in the realm of Newark Normal's sportdom. In the group that appeared for the initial session there was included enough promising material to delight the heart of any coach.

The team was finally composed of seven members, Joseph Domarecki, Charles Detgen, Ford Sheppard, Alex Kaufman, Charles Fisher, Samuel Chernetsky and Joe Berg. On March 5, after two months of training in the various gymnastic events, Coach Joseph A. D'Angola sent the boys against the Princeton University Freshmen, for their inaugural dual meet. Our team appeared on the short end of a 34 to 20 score. They showed up extremely well, but were handicapped by the lack of reserves.

In the New Jersey Association of the A. A. U. gymnastic championship our team placed fourth. Joseph Domarecki scored a second in the side-horse event and Charles Detgen a third place in tumbling. They were Newark Normal's only two entrants in the meet.

The last dual meet in April took place against the Panzer College of Physical Education at Panzer with our formidable opponents defeating us by a count of 40 to 23.

THE SWIMMING CLUB

|                      |                       |
|----------------------|-----------------------|
| President .....      | Beatrice Schauwecker  |
| Vice-President ..... | Cecelia Flynn         |
| Secretary .....      | Louise Hopkins        |
| Treasurer .....      | Jeannette Middlebrook |
| Advisor .....        | Mrs. St. Clair        |

THIS year it was possible to make arrangements for all-year swimming. The Club met on Thursdays and Fridays from two to four-thirty o'clock at the Newark Athletic Club and R.C.A. Pool in Harrison, respectively.

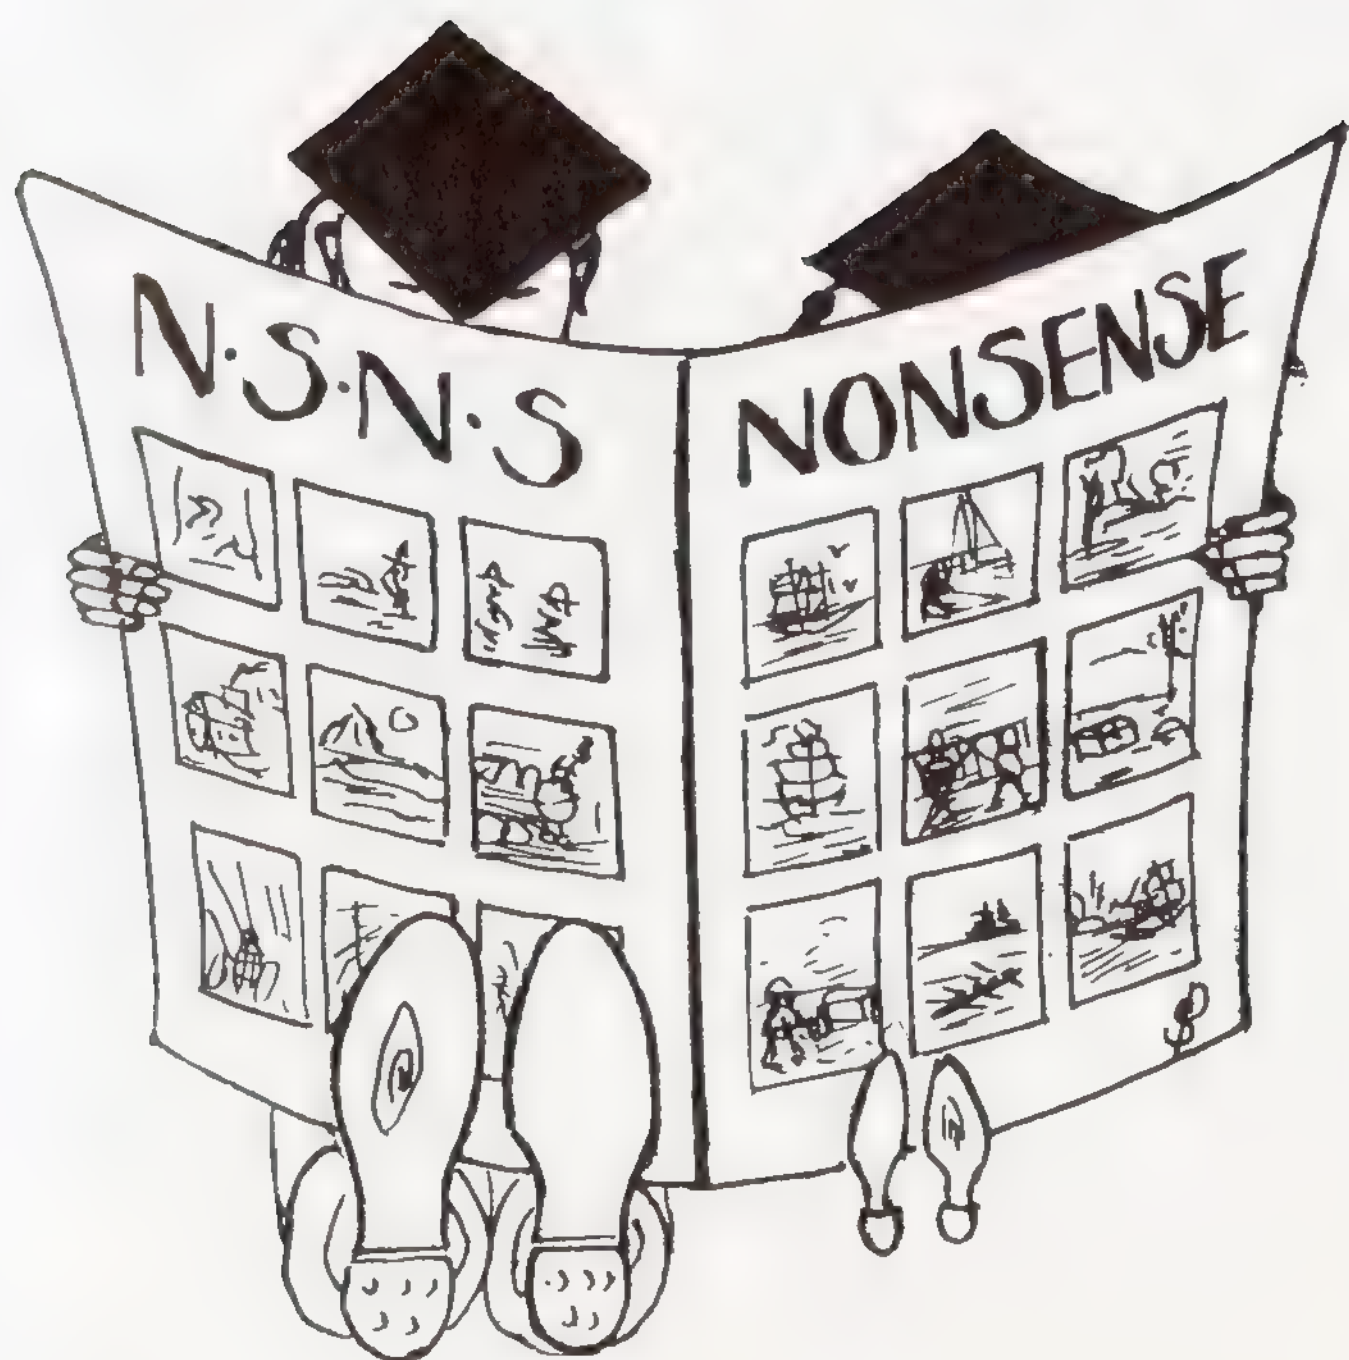

Instruction was given to beginners and also to advanced swimmers. Diving was a special feature of instruction and enjoyment.

Several of the advanced swimmers worked for their Life Saving Emblem. Jeannette Middlebrook, who received her examiners' certificate, gave the test in June.

The club is trying to prove that swimming is not only a necessary safety measure, but that water games and play day and "good" swimming are excellent means of exercise and a worthy use of leisure time.

WASHINGTON HO!

By S. PRENSNER

NO ONE turned over for another wink of sleep on the morning of March 1st. No sir! Long before the sun had climbed into its throne, the excited group were well along the road ready to record another chapter of the Washington—N. S. N. S. tradition. Customs in many schools are well established and fulfilled rather mechanically each year. Our traditional trip is really a "Tradition-less tradition" in that not one of us could predict the annual program of levity.

In a short description of a complete trip only outstanding events can be touched upon; and in connection with description, it will be necessary to describe the "mode" since some people were always unaccounted for.

Not at all tired and weary, everyone arrived at Hotel Lafayette after their long scenic ride. Plans had already been formed for the evening's entertainment only to be cooled off by some fatherly advice from Mr. Dan—"Let the team sleep tonite." It surely was a good idea, but no one could sleep. A few of the fellows complained that their private rooms were so lonely that they just had to sleep with the others. When we had a friendly little gathering (12 in a room) the guests decided to turn in. With such an amicable group there still is a question as to why three or four of the boys of room 715 had to run out early the next morning to purchase some nails, screws, and iron angles.

Returning rather hurriedly from the short tour we had just enough time to adjust ourselves for the main occasion of our journey. The enormous delegation to Wilson State Teachers' College certainly was inspiring to our team. They played and played their hardest and cleanest game. First one school was in the lead, and then the other, until a tie was reached and consistently maintained. As the last few seconds approached, a sudden spurt turned the score in Wilson's favor. There was real rivalry and unexcelled sportsmanship shown by both teams. Everyone enjoyed the game and when it was all over, we were warmly greeted and invited to an informal dance where many fine friendships were made. In a downpour of rain we returned to the Hotel—everybody happy.

Saturday, by special arrangements, it was possible for us to inspect the White House, the residence of our country's leader. Due to some confusion of dates, President and Mrs. Roosevelt did not greet us upon our arrival. This did not affect us very badly because the day's program was well stocked and still untouched. Some chose sight seeing around Washington while the others went to Annapolis to view the "big guns." No matter which direction anyone went, there was very little trouble in "Rounding up" for the non-stop run to Elder Michaux and his congregation on the banks of the Potomac. Although the broadcast lasted but one half hour, the service requires two hours. We were certainly given a new insight into religion. Novelty and perhaps practicality in religion. Never the less, happy were we.

Although it cannot be explained here, everyone made use of sleeping quarters in preparation for the ride back; and with the extra time Sunday morning plus the hotel's free stationery there was an unusual opportunity to catch up on forgotten correspondence, before we moved out. A bit of packing and a bit more of sight-seeing and the hour had arrived. Hasty farewells, clicking cameras, and off we went. It was all too short, but really, isn't a trip of this kind the ideal way to form closer friendships?

WASHINGTON WIT

"What's the difference between the 50 and 75 cent rooms?"

"Not much, the 75 cent ones have rat traps."

Normalite: "Do you know if the charges here are reduced if one stays a week?"

Hotel Porter: "Couldn't tell you sir, nobody's ever stayed a week."

The "Chef" named it "Enthusiastic Stew" because he put everything he had into it.

The old problem of 12 senators in 11 rooms had nothing on our problem—29 registered—47 to accommodate.

——— from behind bolted doors:

"How fast your heart is beating. It sounds like a drum."

"Yes, that's the call to arms."

YES OR NO?

We retired promptly at 11 P. M. each night?

We always kept perfectly quiet, never molesting other hotel guests?

We never annoyed the telephone operator with unnecessary calls?

Not for one moment did we forget our professional attitude?

We (fellows) did not have any time to bother with the girls?

We were warmly greeted and shown about the White House by President and Mrs. Roosevelt?

We did not take any souvenirs with us from the hotel?

We longed to return to dear old Normal?

The hotel management expressed their regrets when we departed?

The next day at Normal, feeling greatly exhilarated, we resumed our schedules as if nothing had occurred?

JOKES

Sudler: "Tomorrow is my birthday, may I take a day off?"

Mrs. Denny: "Surely, most women take two or three years off."

Joe Ram: "I can't figure in here. It's too crowded. When I do my figuring I need plenty of room."

Hirshman: "Why not do it in your head then?"

Dot: "Who discovered America?"

Bunts: "Why, Ohio did!"

Dot: "You're wrong. It was Columbus."

Bunts: "Yes I know, but I didn't think you wanted to know his first name also."

Mr. Dickey (at doctor's office): "Doctor, I've had a slight pain in my chest for several weeks."

Doctor: "Why, you're all right, all you need is a good bath."

Andrus: "I'm thru with women forever."

Prensner: "Is that the reason you forgot to shave this morning?"

Miller (buying his fur coat): "Can I wear this coat in the rain without hurting it?"

Furrier: "Sir, did you ever see a rat carry an umbrella?"

When Noah sailed the ocean blue,
He had his troubles same as you,
He drove and drove and drove his ark,
Until he found a place to park.

Burp took his aunt out riding, tho icy was the breeze;
He put her in the rumble seat, to see his anti-treeze.

Sut: "Why do you think I'd make a good aviator?"

Sr. B 2: "Because you're no earthly good."

Dick: "Oh, say, I pulled off something big last night."

Ding: "What was it?"

Dick: "My shoes."

Seiffer (breathlessly): "Just met a great big bear in the woods."

Bing: "Good. Did you give him both barrels?"

Seiffer (wiping his brow): "Both barrels? I gave him the whole gun."

Freshie: "Pa, you remember you promised to give me $10 if I passed all my subjects?"

Pa: "Yes, son."

Freshie: "Well, you ain't gonna have that expense."

Miss Kreiner: "Tell me two things about John Milton."

McDavitt: "Well, when Milton married, he wrote 'Paradise Lost,' and when his wife died, he wrote 'Paradise Regained'."

PRACTICE TEACHING PRESENTS ITS PROBLEMS

A student teacher was having her trial and finally decided to write to the mother.

"Your son is the brightest boy in my class, but he is also the most mischievous. What shall I do?"

The reply—"Do as you please, I am having my own troubles with his father."

Miss Kasin came across a colored child in her classroom by the name of Female Jones.

Miss Kasin: "Female, is that your real name?"

Female: "Yes, Miss Smith."

Miss Kasin: "How peculiar, do you know why you were given that name?"

Female: "Well, when I was born, the nurse put the word female on the bottom of my birth certificate and my mother thought that was the name the nurse liked for me, so she named me that."

Miss Pierce: "All those who do not understand this problem—stand up." (rising from chair)

Johnnie stands up.

Miss Pierce: "Why, Johnnie, don't you understand the problem?"

Johnnie: "Yes, teacher. It's not that. Just a few moments ago you told us to be polite so I stood up to keep you company."

SOOTHING SAYINGS

1. When every bone in your body aches, be glad you are not a herring.
2. This is the age of the clever girl—but no one knows the age of the clever girl.
3. Even though your wedding cannot be such a swell affair you can at least afford puffed rice.
4. If you ever tried to think of the right word for two weeks—it's fortnight.
5. Put more fire in your poetry and not so many poems in the fire.
6. The early bird may catch the worm, but what about the vegetarian?
7. Other groups may be selected—so are bad apples.
8. Just because a man casts reflections is no sign that he is polished.
9. Don't blame the hen if the egg is bad. Remember it was good when it left her for market.
10. Half a loaf is better than the average cafeteria sandwich.

"Sunny" Raynor: "I showed my aunt the verses you sent me, she was pleased."

"Walt" Faley: "Indeed, and pray, what did she say?"

"Sunny": She said she was glad I wasn't going with a poet."

---

Sandberg: "My ancestors have had the right to bear arms for the last three hundred years."

Bellingham: "Hoot mon, my ancestors have had the right to bare legs for the last two thousand years."

---

Traffic Cop: "What's your name?"

O'Brien (driving truck): "It's on the side of my truck."

Cop (trying to read name): "It's obliterated."

O'Brien: "You're crazy, it's O'Brien."

---

Ceil Farley: "Is that a real diamond?"

Hankinson: "If it isn't I've been gyped out of a dollar."

---

Mrs. Vaughn Eames: "Mr. Ciccone, you misspelled most of the words in your composition."

Jada: "Yes, ma'am, I'm trying to be a dialect writer."

---

Mr. Sloan: "Now let us prove the earth is round. Mr. Liston, would it be possible for your father to walk around the world?"

Mr. Liston: "No, sir!"

Mr. Sloan: "Why not?"

Mr. Liston: "Because he fell down and broke his leg yesterday."

---

Faley: "The nerve of that man offering me $10 a week. What does he think I am—a college graduate?"
